european citizenship as they develop in such increasingly important areas as the following core aspects of competition and financial integration law the ongoing process of european constitutionalization the application of general principles in the new member states the growth of european private law the successive creation of a jus commune europaeum and the instrumental function of the ec court there is also special consideration attached to such overriding issues as the gap filling function of the principles within the community legal system and the implications of the use of a comparative methodology the authors include both eminent well known experts many of whom took part in the 1999 conference and representatives of a new generation of younger scholars in the field for the myriad parties involved in the evolution of the european project from a legal perspective this book serves as a watershed a thorough inspection of the foundations as they are perceived and understood at the present moment it is sure to be consulted and cited often in the years to come
