when historians take the long view they look at ages or eras the age of jackson the progressive era but these time spans last no longer than a decade or so in this groundbreaking new book morton keller divides our nation s history into three regimes each of which lasts many many decades allowing us to appreciate as never before the slow steady evolution of american public life americans like to think of our society as eternally young and effervescent but the reality is very different a proper history of america must be as much about continuity persistence and evolution as about transformation and revolution to provide this proper history keller groups america s past into three long regimes deferential and republican from the colonial period to the 1820s party and democratic from the 1830s to the 1930s and populist and bureaucratic from the 1930s to the present this approach yields many new insights we discover for instance that the history of colonial america the revolution and the early republic is a more unified story than usually assumed the civil war industrialization and the progressive era did relatively little to alter the character of the democratic party regime that lasted from the 1830s to the 1930s and the populist bureaucratic regime in which we live today has seen changes in politics government and law as profound as those that occurred in the late 18th and early 19th centuries as keller underscores the sheer staying power of america s public institutions he sheds light on current concerns as well in particular will the current political polarization continue or will more moderate forces prevail here then is a major contribution to united states history an entirely new way to look at our past our present and our future packed with provocative and original observations about american public life at present when most new buildings in our cities are huge glass boxes it is hard to make out what they mean only a few decades ago it was easier to decipher our cities has architecture lost the connection to public and private life that made us feel at home among buildings this book explores the meanings that appear when architecture is observed from a political perspective it examines how architecture has mirrored the political events and developments in europe since the end of the second world war which have brought significant changes to this continent s constitution this analysis will show how architecture is ingrained in our lives and what meanings are generated from this relationship in 1995 more than 100 historians gathered at the university of notre dame for a conference convened to honour the american historian vincent p de santis this collection of essays from the conference aims to describe and define the state of political history at the end of the 20th century this book is an instructive historical record of the first republic of ghana and the triumphs and tribulations of successive governments since 1950 it reminds us of the struggle between osagyefo dr kwame nkrumah and his political opponents in the period preceding the achievement of political independence for ghana the events leading to his overthrow and its impact on the course of ghanas history it is perhaps the most comprehensive history to date of the rawlings era the establishment of the fourth republic and the formation of the national democratic congress ndc the ndc came to eclipse the convention peoples party cpp as the rival of the danquahbusia tradition manifested in the united gold coast convention ugcc the countrys oldest national political movement originally formed to pioneer the independence struggle but later eclipsed by the breakaway cpp the ugcc has undergone several transformations since and today is represented by the new patriotic party npp the book well documents the challenges facing independent ghana including those related to the growth of democracy nationwide and within political parties the african liberation struggle the drama of the congo crisis of the 1960s and the liberian crisis of the 1990s are graphically re enacted to highlight ghanas significant role in the events it is perhaps the best account of the sacrifices ghana and other ecowas countries particularly nigeria made in returning peace to liberia after a bitter civil war through the successful peacekeeping and peace enforcement efforts of ecowas monitoring group ecomog the book sheds light on dr obed yao asamoahs evolution into a politician of no mean achievement during the creation of the fourth republic and as the longest serving foreign minister and attorney general and minister of justice ghana has ever known offices he held simultaneously between 1993 and 1997
