in december of 1979 soviet tanks rolled across the borders of afghanistan beginning a period of barbaric aggression that triggered a turning point in modern history idries shahas brilliant novel chronicles the courageous 10 year resistance of the afghan people an epic story of triumph over tyranny that deserves to be immortalized kara kush is the definitive story of freedom fighters it is a story of patriotism in action mobilized and fuelled not by a mass media propaganda machine or the charisma of a single individual but by a thousands of years old tradition of proud independence deep love of oneas land and fierce will to survive kara kush was first published in 1986 at a time when most of the outside world dismissed the afghan resistance as a rag tag lot of rival guerrilla factions in a futile holdout against an invincible military machine with extraordinary insight into human nature and the course of human history kara kush told the real story according to shah almost all of the people in the text of the novel actually exist or did the accounts of battles and raids precise military details and the stories of soviet and red afghan atrocities were all from primary sources eye witnesses participants defectors victims and prisoners this remarkable book among all other sources offers keys to understanding not only this important strategic region but the very phase in world history in which we find ourselves today much more than a novel even more than a tribute kara kush stands as a model of human vision leadership cooperation and capacity at a time when we need it most i collected this material from freedom fighters some of them my own relatives from refugees and from men and women fighting shoulder to shoulder from all over afghanistan idries shah kafiristan or the land of the infidels was a region of eastern afghanistan where the inhabitants had retained their traditional pagan culture and religion and rejected conversion to islam the káfirs of the hindu kush is a detailed ethnographic account of the kafirs written by george scott robertson 1852 1916 a british administrator in india with the approval of the government of india robertson made a preliminary visit to kafiristan in october 1889 and then lived among the kafirs for almost a year from october 1890 to september 1891 robertson describes his journey from chitral in present day pakistan to kafiristan and the difficulties he encountered in traveling about the country and in gaining information about the kafir culture and religion the latter he writes is a somewhat low form of idolatry with an admixture of ancestor worship and some traces of fire worship also the gods and goddesses are numerous and of varying degrees of importance or popularity robertson describes religious practices and ceremonies the tribal and clan structure of kafir society the role of slavery the different villages in the region and everyday life and social customs including dress diet festivals sport the role of women in society and much else that he observed first hand the book is illustrated with drawings and it concludes with a large fold out topographical map which shows the author s route in kafiristan in 1896 the ruler of afghanistan amir abd al rahman khan reigned 1880 1901 conquered the area and brought it under afghan control the kafirs became muslims and in 1906 the region was renamed nuristan meaning the land of light a reference to the enlightenment brought by islam excerpt from the kafirs of the hindu kush in the year 1888 in company with colonel durand c b then a young cavalry captain i was travelling through the astor valley of kashmir to gilgit on one memorable occasion we had made a double march the track was extremely arduous and the waning light found us tired and jaded and still some distance from camp silent and slow footed we rounded the doian spur in the gathering darkness and had begun the descent to the village when a strange sight to the north west startled us into open eyed wonder and indeed a wonderful picture lay spread out before and beneath us it was bounded and restricted below by the large spurs which guard the mouth of the astor valley above the pure sky domed over all while in front a filmy veil of cloud was suspended which seemed to magnify and accentuate instead of dimming the noble outlines which lay behind through this mysterious curtain could be seen a bold curve of the indus flanked by mighty mountains and the light yellowish grey shades of the sai valley which increased the general appearance of dream like unreality about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
