How to Approach Analyzing Motives Using the Chapter Skillbuilder Practice as a Guide

Lets assume your Chapter Skillbuilder Practice Analyzing Motives 18 PDF presents you with excerpts from a story, poems, or plays. Here's a step-by-step approach to effectively analyze the motives presented:

- Step 1: Close Reading and Annotation
This is the foundational step. Read the excerpt carefully, annotating directly on the PDF if allowed, or on a separate sheet of paper. Highlight key actions, dialogue, and descriptions that might hint at a character's inner world. Ask yourself:
  - What specific actions does the character take?
  - What is the character's dialogue like? Is it assertive, passive, manipulative?
  - What are the character's thoughts and feelings if revealed?
  - What is the context of the scene?
  - What is happening around the character?
- Step 2: Identifying Potential Motives
Once you've annotated the text, start brainstorming possible motives. Consider these categories:
  - Internal Motives: These stem from the character's inner world: their desires, fears, beliefs, values, and personal history. For example, a character might steal food out of desperation or seek revenge out of anger or emotion.
  - External Motives: These are driven by external factors: the environment, other characters, and circumstances. For example, a character might lie to protect a loved one, social pressure, or conform to societal expectations or peer influence.
- Step 3: Evidence-Based Analysis
This is where the analytical muscle comes in. Don't just guess; support your analysis with specific evidence from the text. For each motive you identify, cite specific lines, actions, or descriptions that justify your interpretation.

Practical Example: Lets say your PDF excerpt shows a character secretly taking money from a shared fund. A Weak Analysis might be: "The character is selfish." This is a general statement lacking
