FAQs

- 1 Is the Whitten 10th Edition eText compatible with all devices? Compatibility varies depending on the platform used. Check the publisher's website for a detailed list of supported devices and operating systems.
- 2 What if I have trouble accessing the online platform? Contact your instructor or the publisher's customer support. They can usually troubleshoot access issues and provide assistance.
- 3 Are the online homework assignments graded automatically? Most platforms provide immediate feedback on some questions, but others require manual grading by the instructor. Check your course syllabus for details.
- 4 Can I use the online resources if I bought a used textbook? Used textbooks may or may not include access codes for online resources. Purchasing a used textbook with the access code can save money, but verify availability before purchasing.
- 5 How does the online platform compare to other chemistry learning resources? The effectiveness of any learning resource depends on individual learning styles and preferences. Whitten's online resources are generally considered comprehensive and well-integrated, but other platforms may offer different strengths. Explore various options to find what works best for you.
