the remarkable longhouses of borneo remain mysterious this book describes life within them and puts them in their historical and ethnographic context ordeal of the longhouse the peoples of the iroquois league in the era of european colonization for two centuries travellers were amazed at the massive buildings found along the rivers that flow from the mountainous interior of borneo they concentrated hundreds of people under one roof in the middle of empty rainforests there was no practical necessity for this arrangement and it remains a mystery in this book peter metcalf provides an answer by showing the historical context using both oral histories and colonial records the key factor was a pre modern trading system that funneled rare and exotic jungle products to china via the ancient coastal city of brunei meanwhile the elite manufactured goods traded upriver shaped the political and religious institutions of longhouse society however the apparent permanence of longhouses was an illusion in historical terms longhouse communities were both mobile and labile and the patterns of ethnicity they created more closely resemble the contemporary world than any stereotype of tribal societies
