this volume offers a comprehensive discussion of implementation analysis in higher education and an extensive review of relevant recent literature coverage analyzes the effective and specific complexities of the implementation of higher education policies in several countries including australia austria finland italy mexico the netherlands norway portugal spain south africa sweden the united kingdom and the united states this book examines some of the major higher education reforms and policy shifts globally particularly in the light of recent shifts in quality and standards driven education and policy research it critiques the neo liberal ideological imperatives of current higher education and policy reforms and illustrates the way that changes in the relationship between the state and higher education policy affect current trends in higher education reforms using diverse comparative education paradigms from critical theory to historical comparative research the chapters focus on globalisation ideology and higher education reforms and examine both the reasons and outcomes of higher education reforms and policy change the book analyses and evaluates the policy shifts in methodological approaches to globalisation and higher education reforms and their impact on education policy and pedagogy the book contributes in a very scholarly way to a more holistic understanding of the nexus between globalisation comparative education research and higher education reforms higher education is in transition on the one hand over the last decades it has become politically and economically more important and thus also an object of reforms on the other hand higher education has become less special and is no longer able to justify its unique governance arrangements this volume presents a collection of contributions that go beyond reform agendas as such and focus on the effects of reforms at all relevant levels in higher education systems it is organised in four themes education research governance and academic profession with a variety of levels of analysis theoretical perspectives methodological approaches and geographical foci the topics in focus include the possible impact of latest national and european initiatives changes in the primary processes education and research on the levels of institutions professions and for individuals as well as higher education dynamics in contexts often overlooked in the literature e g africa the aim is to take stock of the growing knowledge basis with respect to higher education with a special focus on the influence of reforms on the key aspects of higher education this book analyzes the reforms that led to a differentiated landscape of higher education systems after university practices and governance were considered poorly adapted to contemporary settings and to their new missions this has led to a growing institutional differentiation in many higher education systems this differentiation has certainly contributed to making the institutional landscape more diverse across and within higher education systems this book covers this diversity each part corresponds to a different but complementary way of looking at reforms and highlights what can be learnt on specific cases by adopting a specific perspective the first part analyzes the ongoing reforms and their evolution identifies their internal contradictions as well as the redefinitions and reorientations they experience and reveals the ideas representations ideologies and theories on which they are built the second part includes comparison between countries but also other comparative perspectives such as how one reform is developed in different regions of the same country as well as how comparable reforms are declined to different sectors the last part addresses the impact of the reforms what is known about the effectiveness of such instruments on higher education systems this part shows that reforms provoke new power games and reconfigure power relations this book critically examines the rise of the higher education reform movement often referred to as the completion agenda which since the early 2000s has sought to restructure core aspects of the community college experience using community colleges from across nine u s states as practical examples it explores the major higher education reforms including dual enrollment the demise of developmental education corequisites and performance based funding against the popular view that support for such policies is tied to neoliberalism it argues for a more nuanced understanding of the complicated and often indistinct ideological foundation of the reform movement demonstrating that supporters and detractors alike draw on similar concepts such as equity student success and affordability this complication is further clarified through an account of the history processes functions and institutions that paved the way for the advent of the higher education reform movement this book is vital reading for anyone interested in the future of community colleges and higher education more generally this book will particularly appeal to scholars researchers and educators working in higher education educational reform and educational policy higher education operates in an increasingly global context and yet the examination of what drives and moves the field has remained largely focused on domestic campus leaders national governments and institutional actors international organizations and higher education policy expands the analysis to include the global drivers behind higher education policy including a full array of influential organizations such as the world bank unesco oecd wto bilateral aid agencies and major private foundations the significance of these organizations is especially pronounced in the developing world where the expansion of higher education is happening in conjunction with the broadening influence of globalization international organizations and higher education policy critically analyses the impact that these influential organizations have at different levels of policy development and implementation around the world it examines their role in higher education institutions examines the strength of these relationships and exposes both the positive and negative implications this edited volume is composed of scholars and members of these organizations from around the world they address how international organizations represent the interests of the developed world and subsequently have an impact on the developing world how these organizations drive and shape the global agenda for higher education how higher education as an international industry is subject to a myriad of influences from the international to the regional level what ethical issues emerge when international organizations intervene in national policy making processes universities have never been static even so it is fair to say they have experienced a most radical transformation in the past twenty years during this period the role and responsibility of the state generally have been broadly limited while allowing market forces private ownership and control more influence but even where the state is still the main provider or funder it relies increasingly on market mechanisms for example contractual relations between state and institutions competition among providers for resources and external assessment of outputs which means the results or impact of what universities do in particular teaching and research the new terminology speaks of price and competition inputs and outputs resources cost and benefits demand and supply provider and customer consumers and investors quality control and accountability education and post secondary education especially are increasingly seen as matters for markets formal post secondary education becomes a service commercialized and traded across national borders this volume on changing relationship between state and market contains besides an introductory analytic overview of the issues accounts from different countries regions and thematic perspectives chapter authors describe and analyze government reforms and other developments that have directly or indirectly affected this relationship although the geographical focus is on north america especially mexico south east asia and europe the phenomenon is not limited to these regions and countries but worldwide
