discovering fiction is a two level reading series that introduces students to authentic american literature student s book 2 is an anthology of eighteen short stories by contemporary and classic american authors including kate chopin ernest hemingway

Langston Hughes and Shirley Jackson. The stories have universal appeal that will touch students and make them think. Designed for high intermediate to advanced students, the text provides interactive integrated skills lessons developed around each story. Pre-reading sections include prior knowledge questions, author biographies, discussions of literary terms, and reviews of idioms and expressions found in the stories. Accompanying grammar exercises help students overcome such trouble areas as prepositions, articles, and irregular verbs. Also included are vocabulary sections, reading comprehension questions, and thought-provoking discussion and writing topics. Review sections tie the stories together and provide review tests.

A valuable assortment of teacher-student duets in their original form, written by teachers and composers during the 18th and 19th centuries, arranged in order of difficulty. The student parts are limited to a single five-finger position and fall primarily within the grand staff reading range. Each book includes works by such composers as Diabelli, Gurlitt, Berceux, Wohlfahrt, Berens, and others.

The Belwin String Builder is a string class method in which the violin, viola, cello, and bass play together throughout each book. However, it is a complete unit and may be used separately for class or individual instruction. The material in this book is realistically graded so that only a minimum of explanatory material is required. Each melody is interesting and will provide the basis for a fine left-hand technique and bow arm available in three levels for violin, viola, cello, bass, piano accompaniment, and teacher's manual.

The accompanying student audio CD includes recorded vocabulary, focused listening, conversations, pronunciation, and reading materials from the book. The workbook includes additional exercises for independent practice, review, or homework for the level 2 student book.

These three unique volumes contain 47 duets in their original form, written by composers who lived in the 18th, 19th, and 20th centuries. The primo and secondo parts are written on facing pages and are of equal difficulty, allowing students of equal ability to perform together. These duets can be used as supplementary material for any course of study.
