elementary english grammar and writting skill learn english grammar with easy writting skill lessons noun pronoun adjective adverb preposition conjunction interjection sentence with examples this book is intended as an introductory text for courses in english grammar at secondary and tertiary level it offers an outline account of the most important and central grammatical constructions and categories in English I have assumed only minimal prior familiarity with the structure of English. All the grammatical terminology used is systematically explained. The analysis draws on the descriptive and theoretical advances made in modern linguistics and for this reason the book could be used for an elementary course on English within a linguistics programme. It is however intended for a wider audience for any course aiming to present a descriptive overview of the structure of English. Significant departures from traditional grammar in analysis or terminology are pointed out normally in footnotes. One distinctive feature of the book is that it discusses the major grammatical categories at both a language particular and a general level. The language particular account gives the distinctive grammatical properties of the various categories as they apply to English. It thus provides the criteria for determining whether some word is a noun, verb, adjective, adverb or whatever, whether some verb form is a past participle, a past tense form etc, whether some clause is declarative, interrogative, imperative, exclamative and so on. Analysis at the general level is concerned with what is common to the categories across languages, thus providing criteria for the application of the same terms in the grammars of different languages. I hope this book will remain as a friend in need in your daily life whenever you use English language as a communicative vehicle.

the memoirs of Mustapha Hussain from his coming of age in a Minangkabau Malay community in Perak to his part in the formation of the Young Malays Union a hilarious and nostalgic account of twentieth century Muslim life on the Indian subcontinent. Basharat and his family are Indian Muslims who have relocated to Pakistan but who remain deeply steeped in the nostalgia of pre-partition life in India. Through mirages of the mind's absurd anecdotes and unforgettable biographical sketches which hide the deeper unease and sorrow of the family's journey from Kanpur to Karachi, Basharat emerges as a wise fool and the host of this unique sketch comedy. From humorous scenes in colonial North India to the heartbreak and homesickness of post-colonial life in Pakistan, Mirages of the Mind forms an authentic portrait of life among South Asia's Urdu speakers, rendered beautifully into English by Matt Reeck and Aftab
