in this in depth study of eight diverse mainline protestant congregations anthropologist fredric roberts finds that when local congregations are evaluated by spiritual and religious standards

instead of corporate or pop culture based values there remains much to celebrate roberts recommends that congregations work to discover their own uniqueness and to build upon the strength that already exist among its own members be not afraid is a guide to help congregations rediscover their true calling to be nurturing faith communities committed to spreading the good news and making disciples life is fragile handle with prayer whether we realize it or not our every day lives are filled with prayerful moments for some this is a conscious effort but too often prayer is a one sided monologue at god when we don t give god the opportunity to speak to us then our friendship with christ suffers so ask yourself if i am not listening to god to whom am i listening prayer is about building and deepening our relationship with christ as we nurture this friendship we find that prayer is also about being changed from within which allows us to grow closer to jesus prayer is a relationship is a workbook that allows you to explore different ways of praying using the giving your prayer wings exercises how is your prayer life is it all you want or hope it can be christ is calling are you listening priestly ministry in the church of england needs a radical rethink george herbert died in 1633 his legacy continues his poems are read and sung and his parish ministry remains the model for the church of england s understanding of how and where and why its priests should minister but there is a problem the memory of herbert celebrated by the church is an inaccurate one and in its inaccuracy is unfair on herbert himself and his successors in the ordained ministry this is a book of the long view it sets out to assess realistically the context of herbert s life and to explore the difficulties of parish life today by examining the status and role of parish clergy since herbert s time and today it draws on the work of historians social anthropologists psychologists and theologians and presents their ideas in a readable and passionate style it argues that the future strength of parochial ministry will be found in a recovery of historic renewed understandings of priestly ministry and concludes by outlining more sustainable patterns of practice for the future in a climate of uncertainty for the future of the church it will be an encouragement for priest and people and welcomed by both the calling to parish ministry involves a journey leading through lowland thickets and high plateau vistas it s a vocation not for weak spirits the parish presents general challenges rather than specialist endeavors so wearing one hat after another the pastor may speak from the pulpit join a team processing a current social concern visit the intensive care hospital unit and offer counsel at birth marriage or death maybe all in one day clergy and non ordained alike will find that parish the thought provides a closeup insight into this ministry telling the truth about the defeats and victories experienced over the course of forty years in the parish this memoir spends little time in navel gazing rather the author explores the humor conflicts ventures and achievements that rise in his memory the reader will detect a commitment to priestly and prophetic ministry one that seeks to comfort the distressed and to nudge the comfortable out of apathy encompassing the personal and public dimensions of the faith all this as an adventure following the pioneer jesus the christ making clear that it is ordinary living which is at the heart of parish life bob mayo provides an important and accessible resource for all involved in church leadership george herbert welsh poet hymn writer orator and anglican priest was noted for unfailing care for his parishioners bringing the sacraments to them when they were ill and providing food and clothing for those in need in this book you will find stories of overcoming loss and doubt and finding hope and faith you will read about times when god his angels and saints have interacted directly with the contributing authors in critical times of need the reader will find stories from more than thirty writers of various faiths and ages but all with the same goal to share their experiences of struggle and triumph with those who need to find hope joy and direction for their lives these are stories of normal people like those you meet in the grocery store those who cut your hair repair your air conditioner and teach your children these are people who sometimes struggle to pay their bills deal with family difficulties and love to sleep in they are regular people who through god s grace have received guidance cures and answered prayers we must never think that we cannot have such experiences we are all god s children equal in his eyes as you read these pages may god s love and mercy fill you with his grace
