a feel good coming of age rom com from debut author page powars that follows a trans teen who joins a boyfriend borrowing service masquerading as an italian club to prove that he s one of the guys especially to its frustratingly handsome leader noah byrd is the perfect boy at least that s what he needs to convince his new classmates of to prove his gender his plan join the school s illustrious and secret borrow a boyfriend club whose members rent themselves out for dates once he s accepted among the bros the slip ups end but noah s interview is a flop desperate he strikes a deal with the club s prickly but attractive president asher noah will help them win an annual talent show and in return he ll get a second shot to demonstrate his boyfriend skills in a series of tests that include romancing asher himself if noah can t bring home the win his best chance to prove that he s man enough is gone yet even if he succeeds he still loses because the most important rule of the borrow a boyfriend club is simple no real boyfriends or girlfriends allowed and as long as the club remains standing as high as asher s man bun noah and asher can never explore their growing feelings for one another natalia they say chaos destroys everything it touches they re wrong chaos reveals the truth i m engaged in a game i never agreed to surrounded by alliances built on lies and blood nikolai wears devotion like a weapon and every look from him threatens to unravel the control i fought to earn i should run i should choose safety instead i choose the man who could destroy me because with him at least the ruin would be honest and i m terrified of how badly i want to fall apart in his hands nikolai control has always been my religion until natalia smirnov became my weakness watching her stand beside me defiant brilliant untouchable does something violent to my restraint every smile she gives the world is a lie every silence she offers me is a challenge i watch natalia pretend she isn t mine while her pulse gives her away i see it in the way she breathes when i lean in in the way she stiffens when my name leaves someone else s mouth if chaos is the price of having her i ll pay it gladly because the only thing worse than losing control would be losing her this is the second book in the beautiful scars series reading order beautiful mess beautiful chaos beautiful ruin for the first time the best of marc porter zasada s short pieces famous for their incisive wit and gorgeous prose have been pulled together in one place some have been expanded and some have been created just for this collection together they make a kind of through line for the city of angels and second chances this collection examines the event of fukushima in japan in terms of urban sociology and cultural politics to portray the triple catastrophe of march 2011 as both a planetary event and a dual economic and environmental crisis which indelibly marked japan and the wider global community the contributors examine how this new situation has been expressed in particular cultural forms literature film political discourses and urban everyday life in tokyo and fukushima arguing for an imperative need to redefine the national frame of analysis in terms of the concept of the planetary building on recent debates in ecocriticism planetary atmospheres and urban life after fukushima deconstructs the spatial logic of containment that reduces the event of fukushima to a place bound object to instead reinscribe this event within an open narrative of the planetary this we believe will allow us to redefine our topologies of attachment to local places beside national discourses of unity resilience and global strategies of risk management and open the way to a radical rethink of japan s cultural politics of japan after march 2011
