the second world war wreaked unprecedented devastation throughout europe necessitating monumental reconstruction efforts that burdened not only governments but the lives of ordinary citizens war massacre and recovery in central italy 1943 1948 examines this transitional period in the province of arezzo by detailing the daily experiences of civilians through the traumas of war and the difficulties of recovery studying the aftermath of war in a new and insightful way victoria c belco shifts the perspective from the national to the local level with this localized focus she provides valuable insight into the ways in which civilians coped with an overwhelming range of problems from adjusting to allied occupation and widespread displacement to rampant unemployment and the restructuring of local administrations and institutions after fascism recreating the post war atmosphere of disorder need and political upheaval belco shows how the competing community interests caused social fragmentations that impeded change while the unity of a shared past prevented civil war providing new insights into the bianchi devotions a medieval popular religious revival which responded to an outbreak of plague at the turn of the fifteenth century this book takes a comparative local and regional approach to the bianchi challenging traditional presentations of the movement as homogeneous whole combining a rich collection of textual visual and material sources the study focuses on the two tuscan towns of lucca and pistoia alexandra r a lee demonstrates how the bianchi processions in central italy were moulded by secular and ecclesiastical authorities and shaped by local traditions as they attempted to prevent an epidemic this is an updated edition of the book by the same author plio quaternary volcanism in italy petrology geochemistry geodynamics published in 2005 by springer this edition has the same structure as the previous publication with a general introduction various chapters dedicated to different volcanic provinces in italy and a final chapter on the relationships between magmatism and geodynamics it includes information that has become available in the last ten years and new chapters have been added offering detailed discussions of the oligo miocene orogenic volcanism on sardinia and of some small outcrops of fragmented volcanic rocks occurring in several places of the apennines this new edition now covers the entire tyrrhenian sea magmatism of the last 40 ma lastly it includes two appendices appendix 1 reports on a comparison between the tyrrhenian sea volcanism and the partially coeval magmatism along the alps and adjoining areas and has the objective of highlighting similarities and difference that can tell us much on geodynamics and magmatism between the converging plates of europe and africa appendix 2 is an update of the 2005 edition appendix and deals with classification of orogenic rocks with special emphasis on potassic alkaline volcanics the colli albani volcano contains 21 scientific contributions on stratigraphy volcanotectonics geochronology petrography and geochemistry hydrogeology volcanic hazards geophysics and archaeology and a new 1 50 000 scale geological map of the volcano the proximity to rome and the interconnection between volcanic and human history also make this volcano of interest for both specialists and non specialists
