Understanding the Beast Deconstructing Constitutional Law Essay Questions

Before diving into answers lets understand how to dissect the question itself Most constitutional law essays will follow a specific structure often a hypothetical scenario or a specific legal issue rooted in constitutional principles Heres a breakdown

Visual A simple flowchart showing the steps

- 1 Identify the Key Issue Identify Relevant Constitutional Provisions Analyze Relevant Case Law Formulate an Argument Conclude

1 Identify the Key Issue What is the central constitutional question being asked Is it about freedom of speech due process equal protection federalism or something else entirely Underline key terms and phrases to pinpoint the core problem Example Discuss the constitutionality of a state law requiring all public schools to begin the day with a mandatory prayer The key issue here is the Establishment Clause of the First Amendment which prohibits the government from establishing a religion

2 Identify Relevant Constitutional Provisions Once youve identified the key issue pinpoint the relevant clauses or amendments of the Constitution Dont just mention them explain their relevance to the specific question Example For the prayer question you would discuss the Establishment Clause of the First Amendment perhaps referencing the Lemon Test Lemon v Kurtzman which helps determine if a government action violates the Establishment Clause

3 Analyze Relevant Case Law This is where your legal research skills come in Find and analyze relevant Supreme Court cases and potentially lower court cases that address similar constitutional issues Dont just summarize the cases explain how the precedents apply to the specific facts of your hypothetical scenario Example In the prayer case youd discuss cases like Engel v Vitale mandatory prayer in public schools is unconstitutional and Abington School District v Schempp mandatory Bible reading is unconstitutional Youd analyze how these cases establish the legal principle for your hypothetical scenario

4 Formulate an Argument Based on your analysis of the constitutional provisions and relevant case law formulate a clear and well-supported argument This should be a reasoned discussion not just a list of facts Consider counterarguments and respond thoughtfully Example You might argue that the mandatory prayer violates the Establishment Clause because it constitutes government endorsement of religion failing the Lemon Test criteria Youd acknowledge potential arguments for the law eg promoting school unity but refute them based on established legal precedents
