this is hindi translation of english book the immigrant written by manju kapur nina at thirty sees herself as increasingly off the shelf but then unexpectedly a proposal arrives ananda is a dentist in halifax canada the two marry and she leaves her home and her country to build a new life with him but there is always more to marriage than courtship and as nina discovers truths about her husband both sexual and emotional her fragile new life in canada begins to unravel the immigrant is another mesmerizing saga about the complexities of arranged marriage and nri life from this most beloved of novelists a 1 bestseller in india three generations of delhi shopkeepers confront a changing world home tells the story of banwari lal and his family merchants in one of the oldest districts of delhi an immigrant from pakistan banwari lal believes in fate faith and hard work he comes to india after the partition and opens a sari business his daughter is given away into an arranged marriage with tragic consequences his eldest son is determined to marry for love he soon sets his sights on beautiful seventeen year old sona who walks into the family shop one fine day in may of 1965 but it is banwari lal s granddaughter nisha who will become the family s heart as they move from sorrow to prosperity spanning thirty years home is an extraordinary novel about tradition change and finding a place in which to belong in this scholarly book dr rohidas nitonde examines manju kapur's novels with a feminist perspective the study offers an in depth analysis of all the five novels by kapur it is for the first time that all her works are illustrated with a single perspective the focus of argument leads to conclude on kapur's vision of indian womanhood the book explains kapur's indubitable ability to explore the psyche of the present day urban educated middle class indian woman who is trapped in the midway between tradition and modernity it is an attempt to study kapur's women protagonists as portrayed by her in her novels with a view to understand and appreciate their trials and tribulations under the impact of the conflicting influence of tradition and modernity and to critically analyze their response to the emerging situation in life so as to fit themselves in the contemporary society it also probes deeply into the novelists conviction of what would serve as the ideal panacea for the different kinds of challenges faced by her female characters it as well explores both the daring and desires of the indian women in the fictional works of kapur the study is divided into seven chapters the first chapter is introductory in nature the subsequent five chapters deal with the five women protagonists virmati astha nisha nina and ishita who finding themselves trapped in the roles assigned to them by the society attempt to assert their individuality sensitive to the changing times and situations they revolt against the traditions in their search for freedom the last chapter concludes the study by bringing out the general statement about kapur's female protagonists its bibliography and webliography sections are exhaustive this has turned the authoritative work into an indispensable resource for academicians and research scholars it is an invaluable reference on manju kapur english heart hindi heartland examines delhi's postcolonial literary world its institutions prizes publishers writers and translators and the cultural geographies of key neighborhoods in light of colonial histories and the globalization of english rashmi sadana places internationally recognized authors such as salman rushdie anita desai vikram seth and aravind adiga in the context of debates within india about the politics of language and alongside other writers including k satchidanandan shashi deshpande and geetanjali shree sadana undertakes an ethnographic study of literary culture that probes the connections between place language and text in order to show what language comes to stand for in people's lives in so doing she unmasks a social discourse rife with questions of authenticity and cultural politics of inclusion and exclusion english heart hindi heartland illustrates how the notion of what is considered to be culturally and linguistically authentic not only obscures larger questions relating to caste religious and gender identities but that the authenticity discourse itself is continually in flux in order to mediate and extract cultural capital from india's complex linguistic hierarchies literary practitioners strategically deploy a fluid set of cultural and political distinctions that sadana calls literary nationality sadana argues that english and the way it is positioned among the other indian languages does not represent a fixed pole but rather serves to change political and literary alliances among classes and castes often in surprising ways this volume explores the reception of premchand's works and his influence in the perception of india among western cultures especially russian german french spanish and english the essays in the collection also take a critical look at multiple translations of the same work and examine how each new translation expands the work s textuality and annexes new readership for the author as well as representations of celluloid adaptations of premchand s works an important intervention in the field of translation studies this book will interest scholars and researchers of comparative literature cultural studies and film studies this book is about the most vibrant yet under studied aspects of indian writing today it examines multilingualism current debates on postcolonial versus world literature the impact of translation on an indian literary canon and indian authors engagement with the public sphere the essays cover political activism and the north east tribal novel the role of work in the contemporary indian fictional imaginary history as felt and reconceived by the acclaimed hindi author krishna sobti bombay fictions the dalit autobiography in translation and its problematic international success development ecocriticism and activist literature casteism and access to literacy in the south and gender and diaspora as dominant themes in writing from and about the subcontinent troubling eurocentric genre distinctions and the split between citizen and subject the collection approaches indian literature from the perspective of its constant interactions between private and public narratives thereby proposing a method of reading indian texts that goes beyond their habitual postcolonial identifications as national allegories la publicación de este volumen representa un caso relativamente insólito un pequeño grupo de jóvenes investigadores de menos de treinta años convence a un grupo mucho más numeroso de la misma edad para celebrar en salamanca la first conference of young researchers on anglophone studies el resultado es deslumbrante no solo demuestran una gran capacidad organizativa sino que los resultados individuales de las aportaciones científicas son sobresalientes este volumen current trends in anglophone studies recoge una selección revisada de las propuestas presentadas en el encuentro y gira en torno a una estructuración tripartita clásica estudios culturales lingüísticos y literarios en ella caben todos aquellos que se mueven en el campo de los estudios anglófonos cada uno de estos campos podría haber sido suficiente para celebrar un congreso pero parece razonable que en este tipo de encuentros tengan cabida todos de ese modo este volumen se convierte en un ejemplo de aproximación interdisciplinar a los estudios anglófonos desde un punto de vista cuantitativo los estudios culturales ocupan sin duda un espacio menor sin embargo sobresale la variedad de temas tratados así como la internacionalización de los autores dentro de este apartado estudiantes españoles e italianos acometen estudios relacionados con la música la pintura el cine la traducción la marginalidad social o el impacto de las nuevas tecnologías en la producción artística si no pareciera demasiado atrevido podría decirse que estos jóvenes estudiosos irían más allá de lo que un día ya lejano pudieron imaginar richard hoggard o raymond williams los estudios aquí presentados reflejan sin duda la evolución que la propia sociedad ha experimentado en estos últimos cincuenta años y exploran la relación entre las prácticas culturales la vida diaria y los contextos económicos políticos e históricos no es de extrañar que una gran parte de las contribuciones presentadas en este volumen se centren en el estudio de la lengua ya que la demanda del inglés se ha incrementado de forma considerable en los últimos años sobresalen los análisis puramente filológicos y sobre todo los relacionados con el aprendizaje del inglés como segunda lengua por eso destacan estudios que contemplan rasgos morfológicos léxicos o sintácticos sin embargo el mayor número de participaciones hace referencia al ya citado aprendizaje del inglés como L2 tanto desde el análisis de materiales como desde la práctica oral o escrita las contribuciones literarias ofrecen una evaluación teórica formal e interpretativa de distintas tendencias desde perspectivas tanto interdisciplinares como interculturales cronológicamente los estudios abarcan textos desde el siglo XVIII hasta nuestros días con un acento especial en los autores más contemporáneos y en el género narrativo en general estos estudios se fijan en textos concretos y los analizan desde perspectivas culturales sociológicas o psicológicas pero abundan menos las aproximaciones desde la teoría literaria desde la técnica narrativa o como tal vez cabría esperar al tratarse de estudiantes tan jóvenes desde la aplicación de las nuevas tecnologías por el contrario se repiten temas como los traumas heredados de la guerra de Vietnam las cicatrices del 11 de septiembre o los problemas de género an unforgettable novel about what happens when a marriage collapses Shagun is a woman of unassailable social standing married to a man chosen for her a rising executive her lover is her husband's boss she asks for a divorce and all hell breaks loose locked in a venomous legal battle for custody of their eight year old son and two year old daughter Shagun and Raman begin a journey that will have unforeseen consequences set against the backdrop of upper middle class South Delhi custody is both a searing indictment of India's judicial system and an intimate portrait of a failing marriage and a family feminism is rapidly developing as a significant critical ideology it constitutes a major segment of the contemporary writing in English the two volume anthology has detailed discussions on the writings of Anita Desai Shashi Deshpande Bharati Mukherjee Arundhati Roy Manju Kapur Kamala Das Githa Hariharan Chitra Banerjee Divakaruni and Bapsi Sidhwa the central objective of the book is to discuss the theoretical investigations carried out by Indian women writers in their works and to arrive at a deeper understanding of feminist contentions R K Dhawan teaches English at S B S College University of Delhi he has lectured extensively at many universities including those at Sri Lanka Bangladesh Singapore Tunisia Italy and Australia publisher's note set against the tumult of the 1947 Partition Manju Kapur's acclaimed first novel captures a life torn between family desire and love the one thing I had wanted was not to be like my mother Virmati is the eldest of eleven children born to a respectable family in Amritsar her world is shaken when she falls in love with a married man Charismatic Harish is a respected professor and her family's tenant Virmati takes up with Harish and finds herself living alongside his first wife set in Amritsar and Lahore and narrated by Virmati and her daughter Ida a divorcee on a quest to understand and connect with her departed mother Difficult Daughters is a stunning tale of motherhood love and finding one's identity in a nation struggling to discover its own winner of the 1999 Commonwealth Writers Prize for Best First Book Eurasia Region and shortlisted for the Crossword Book Award in India this volume offers a series of analyses on the renewed interest of Western culture in themes and aesthetic proposals that either look back to the past or recreate future worlds the turn of the century has witnessed artistic efforts to reconsider past literary and cinematographic forms and adapt them to the new social concerns of contemporary artists and readers viewers similarly science fiction and utopian narratives have attempted to reshape the world as we know it and speculate about the mysteries the future might hold for us this book includes contributions that focus on and problematise the dialogue between past present and future in literary works and films produced within the english speaking context in the last two decades of the 20th century it is divided in five sections maps of the postmodern the postcolonial experience stories revisited popular narrative genres and views of the future which attempt to include all the motifs associated with that dialogue from the interaction of memory and history to the reformulation of old stories and forms or the representation of dystopian and utopian futures
