a beautiful hardcover pocket poets selection of the works of nobel prize winning italian poet eugenio montale one of the giants of twentieth century poetry eugenio montale

1896-1981 is not only Italy's greatest modern poet but a towering figure in twentieth-century literature. His incandescently beautiful body of work is deeply rooted in the venerable lyric tradition that began with Dante but he brilliantly reinvents that tradition for our time, probing the depths of love, death, faith, and philosophy in the bracing light of modern history, dynamic innovation, and a coiled fierce energy. Fueling the poet's quest for liberation from the self, marked by musicality and rhythmic variety, Montale's poems manage to be buoyant with allusion and metaphor while also densely studded with things with concrete elemental images that keep his complex and restless musings firmly tethered to the world. Montale's reputation is international and enduring; his widely translated work has profoundly influenced generations of poets around the world. This volume contains selections from all his greatest works, rendered into English by the accomplished poet and translator Jonathan Galassi. It serves as both an essential introduction to an important poet and a true pleasure for lovers of contemporary Eugenio Montale (1896-1981) is best known for the intense lyrical vision of his first three collections of poetry written between the 1920s and early 1950s. With the publication of Satura in 1971, the profile of his work changes irrevocably as a new disillusioned voice emerged, commenting ironically on post-war Italian society and debunking his own previous poetic myths. O Ceallachin, while placing this body of work firmly in its historical and ideological context, explores the poetic texts in detail, approaching the work from a variety of interpretative and thematic angles and constructing a comprehensive reading of Montale's later work.

Acclaiming the late Eugenio Montale (1897-1981) as one of the most important poets of the contemporary West, the Swedish Academy awarded him the 1975 Nobel Prize for Literature. This selection, introduced by Glauco Cambon, presents sixty-nine poems chosen from Montale's first three books: Ossi di seppia (Cuttlefish Bones), Le occasioni (The Occasions), and La bufera e altro (The Storm and Other Things), as rendered by sixteen translators, many of them distinguished poets in their own right.

A majestic translation of one of the Nobel Prize-winning masters of twentieth-century poetry, hailed as one of the key poets of the modern era, Eugenio Montale changed Italian poetry forever and helped to create international modernism steeped in the tradition of Dante, Petrarch, and Leopardi, yet fiercely innovative in each new book. Montale challenged the styles he had previously established; his poems chart an adventure of consciousness and conscience in response to the shocks of modernity, fascism, and two world wars, and they also present several of the greatest erotic sequences in modern poetry. The Collected Poems of Eugenio Montale publishes for the first time in English William Arrowsmith's pellucid translations of Poetic Diary (1971-1972) and The Poetic Notebook, as well as his previously published translations of four volumes: Cuttlefish Bones, The Occasions, The Storm and Other Things, and Satura, with the wide range of Montale's poetry at last available to the English reader. This collection reveals Montale to be the greatest Italian poet of the twentieth century.
