the written word is one of the defining elements of christian experience as vigorous in the 1st century as it is in the 21st christian literature has had a significant function in history and teachers and students need to be reminded of this powerful literary legacy covering 2 000 years the encyclopedia of christian literature is the first encyclopedia devoted to christian writers and books in addition to an overview of the christian literature this two volume set also includes 40 essays on the principal genres of christian literature and more than 400 bio bibliographical essays describing the principal writers and their works these essays examine the evolution of christian thought as reflected in the literature of every age the companion volume also features bibliographies an index a timeline of christian literature and a list of the greatest christian authors the encyclopedia will appeal not only to scholars and christian evangelicals but students and teachers in seminaries and theological schools as well as to the growing body of christian readers and bibliophiles most of the prefatory issues are extensively elaborated upon in the prolegomenon which also contains the complete references to the texts and authors discussed below nevertheless the preface would be grossly incomplete without touching on some of these issues books and scholars too many of this book s chapters e g mora s marx s d b weiner s examine and reference important earlier as well as contemporary general histories of psychiatry and specialized monographs in german french italian and spanish also in his 1968 short history of psychiatry d cussed below ackerknecht pp xi xii references important nineteenth and earlier twentieth century psychiatric histories in english french and german such citations will of course not be repeated here finally thanks to several publishers re editions of dozens of classical psychiatric texts one can consult their bibliographies as well see prolegomenon for references to these splendid series in a rough and ready sense medical history began in classical greece for example on ancient medicine while traditionally included in the hippocratic corpus this text seems more likely to have been written by a non or even anti hippocratic doctor moreover the hippocratic and other schools were hardly as secular as we now suppose on epilepsy for example does not so much declare the prevalent denotation of it as the sacred disease erroneous as it does that it is no more nor less sacred than any other disease
