A commentary on the Order of Mass of the Roman Missal gathers the insights of some of today's foremost English-speaking liturgical scholars to aid in understanding this most recent edition of the Order of Mass and its new English translation developed under the auspices of the Catholic Academy of Liturgy. This commentary was guided by three primary concerns: to situate the promulgation of a new English translation of the Roman Missal historically and theologically; to aid in the pastoral implementation of these texts and rites; to contribute to the ongoing development of vernacular worship for English-speaking Roman Catholics. Contributors include John Baldovin, SJ, professor of historical and liturgical theology at the Boston College School of Theology and Ministry; Mary Collins, OSB, professor emerita at the Catholic University of America School of Theology and Religious Studies; Washington, DC; Edward Foley, Capuchin, the Dominus Scotus professor of spirituality and professor of liturgy and music at Catholic Theological Union in Chicago; Joanne Pierce, associate professor in the Department of Religious Studies at the College of the Holy Cross, Worcester, MA.
