What is a deacon? What does a deacon do? These are two questions pastors, parishioners, and even deacons themselves often ask. In a new friendship, Monsignor Edward Buelt answers these questions through an engaging conversation with the scriptures, the Eucharistic liturgy, and church teaching on the diaconate originally given as a retreat for deacon candidates. A new friendship is now available to a larger audience of bishops, priests, deacons, deacons' wives, and candidates in formation. Buelt's treatment of all the major themes of the diaconate: ministry of word, altar, and charity, as well as communion, sacrifice, service, and suffering, is inspiring and enriching. He highlights the meaning of the diaconate through insightful and moving reflections on the scriptures and proposes practical lessons for a deacon's ministry. At Mass, Buelt offers sound counsel for the spiritual life of deacons in the voice of an attentive pastor of souls and as one who cares about the diaconate. A new friendship is a must reading for anyone interested in the diaconate and in diaconal ministry.

This new edition of the standard work, The Englishman's Hebrew Concordance of the Old Testament, is an improved and corrected edition that features a new, larger format now coded to Strong's. It is invaluable in Bible study for those who do not know Hebrew. A new index of out-of-sequence Strong's numbers allows the reader to quickly and easily locate any word by its Strong's number. The Hebrew and English indexes have been retained.
