second volume full length original english language biography of goethe nicholas boyle chronicles the most eventful and crowded years of goethe s life the period of the french revolution which turned goethe s life upside down and of the philosophical revolution in germany which ushered in the periods of idealism and romanticism it was also a period dominated by two intense personal relationships with schiller weimar s other great poet philosopher and dramatist and with christiana vulpius the mother of his son boyle paints vivid portraits of goethe s harrowing experiences of the revolutionary wars of the explosion of new ideas in philosophy and literature which for ten years made jena the intellectual capital of europe and of the upheavals sparked by napoleon which destroyed the holy roman empire

a new creation our very survival is at stake we must change the references and values on which we used to depend are becoming relativized and questionable and the true sense of integrity responsibility and purpose now seems outdated instead we seem to have chosen the path of shortsighted success and gratification convenient arrangements and sometimes the one sided fanaticism and fundamentalism no wonder we find ourselves in such a deep spiritual crisis that makes all other crises possible probable and even certain and extremely dangerous change your world awakening to the power of truth beauty simplicity change is an invitation to faithfully recapture the basics deeply rediscover the very reason for our existence and carefully reassess our references and values truth will make us free beauty will save the world simplicity will help redefine our priorities change will transform us and will transform our world into a new creation 2 corinthians 5 17 this is a profoundly political book it describes in an original and engaging way how to live and govern from our highest and most sacred consciousness therefore do not expect politics as usual politically correct well calculated and feeling good spirituality talks expect rather as it is articulation straightforward approaches and unequivocal descriptions of the new creation values our survival depends on our ability to be truly human and in alignment with our most sacred consciousness the mind of christ 1 corinthians 2 16 isn t contemplation the highest form of activity as aristotle suggested masterfully dr maalouf uncovers the simple truths of a happy healthy and meaningful life and discloses the secret of the fullness of life a contemplative approach to life is indispensable for grasping and living the essence of what it means to be truly human today it is widely recognized that in order to meet environmental challenges it will not simply be enough to make our lifestyles greener also critical is putting an end to the modern conception of the human as master and possessor of nature however to bear fruit this change in anthropology must also be accompanied by a revision in our conception of technology since the enlightenment and the development of industrialization technology no longer seems to be subject to the guiding principles set by the greeks prudence and the search for the right measure in all which leads to the care of beings and the world care in technology analyzes the historical changes that have led technology to become an unthinkable part of care and care an unthinkable part of technology it also establishes the conditions for care to once again become a regulatory principle of the activity of engineers who design technology this book contains an open access chapter this volume is the first systematic survey of the interface between the aesthetic and strategic domains the aesthetic turn in strategy encompasses the use of aesthetic features and style to create value as well as the ways in which the useful and the beautiful can be brought together
