this book examines illustrations created to accompany fictions written by several of the most popular authors published in Britain and America between 1885 and 1920 by studying the lavish illustrations that complemented not only initial serializations but also subsequent publications of fictions by Rider Haggard, Rudyard Kipling, James de Mille, Robert Louis Stevenson, and H. G. Wells. The book demonstrates the significance of images to the fin de si cle romance form in order to make fantastic plots seem possible. Graphic artists worked hand in hand with authors to not only fill gaps in audience understanding but also expand and deepen the meaning of these marvels. The book will be of interest
