this book is different from most other books of the same genre it simply takes another approach at expounding upon these great biblical themes the author has taken the letters of each theme and has built a chapter or chapters upon each letter the author simply believes that there is something else to be said than what has been said so far about the christian faith the faith which was once delivered unto the saints may god bless each reader who reads these few pages dr jones was born in the small southeastern kentucky community of girdler he is the youngest of fourteen children seven boys and seven girls he and his wife carolyn now reside in hamilton oh dr jones has earned a masters degree in theology and a doctorate in religion having held five pastorates in over thirty years of ministry this present work is his fourth book drawing from the latest scientific research as well as numerous illustrative case studies the faith factor offers convincing proof that religious practices can and do enhance the healing powers of medicine and nationally renowned physician dale a matthews offers a program any patient can follow to incorporate faith into their own healing dr matthews points out that encouraging an integration of religious beliefs and practices in medical settings can have important benefits for the entire medical community from patients and doctors to national health policy makers he shows how the national trend toward rediscovering religious values has led many patients to use prayer in conjunction with conventional treatment and that the results have already confirmed that faith and religious practice can be valuable medicine finally dr matthews helps readers explore the connection between faith and medicine in their own lives through methods of prayer community worship and study of scripture the essays in this volume address a closely interconnected set of questions to be true to its mission what function is the church meant to perform what does the faith of christians contribute to the human perception of justice what is the theological significance of action undertaken by christians for political or social transformation is justice to be looked on as one of the moral virtues that it is incumbent on christians to practice or has it a more intrinsic link to the gift of faith which christians have received does the following of christ call christians away from social systems into the new creation or is the call extended to them to concern themselves with the social systems which shape human beings from the foreword contributors include avery dulles william dych john donahue john langan david hollenbach richard roach william walsh this catechism is divided into three parts the first part treats of faith the second of morals the third of the means of grace in the first part our lord appears in his character of teacher in the second in his character of king and in the third in his character of high priest and since this catechism proposes as its primary object to answer the question for what purpose are we here upon earth thereby emphasizing and giving prominence to man s high calling and destiny it is especially suited to the present day when the pursuit of material interests self indulgence and pleasure engrosses the attention of so many this catechism is in fact nothing more nor less than an abstract of our lord s teaching and may be called a guide book for the christian on the road to heaven preface
