a byzantine chronicle is a retelling of history usually beginning with the creation of the world written in simple language and enriched by colourful anecdotes or tantalizing details on political intrigues though extremely popular in the middle ages these texts were long disregarded by scholars due to their historical unreliability and lack of originality now however they are increasingly appreciated for the insights they provide into byzantine ideology and the complex interaction of reading and writing in byzantium this volume highlights and contributes to the radical re evaluation of this long neglected genre of medieval literature contributors are raimondo tocci william adler thomas m banchich albrecht berger richard w burgess john burke réka forrai christian gastgeber martin hinterberger marek jankowiak ralph johannes lilie athanasios markopoulos mischa meier federico montinaro diether roderich reinsch fabian schulz roger scott paul tuffin staffan wahlgren and varvara zharkaya

the last third of the 19th century witnessed a considerable increase in the active participation of women in the various christian missions katharina stornig focusses on the catholic case and particularly explores the activities and experiences of german missionary nuns the so called servants of the holy spirit in colonial togo and new guinea in the late 19th and first half of the 20th centuries introducing the nuns ambiguous roles as travelers evangelists believers domestic workers farmers teachers and nurses stornig highlights the ways in which these women shaped and were shaped by the missionary encounter and how they affected colonial societies more generally privileging the sources produced by nuns i e letters chronicles and reports and emphasizing their activities sisters crossing boundaries profoundly challenges the frequent depiction of women and particularly nuns as the largely passive observers of the missionizing and colonizing activities of men stornig does not stop at adding women to the existing historical narrative of mission in togo and new guinea but presents the hopes and strategies that german nuns related to the imagination and practice of empire she also discusses the effects of boundary crossing both real and imagined in the context of religion gender and race
