it is not a changing culture reduced resources or a rescinding christian memory that creates the greatest challenges for the church in the west it is the lack of a clear commitment to the intentional authentic and contextual expressions of missional disciple making which will shape current and future generations of followers of jesus to express the values of the kingdom today this book offers stimulating historical biblical and theological reflections on discipleship and considers some of the possibilities and opportunities afforded to us by our post christian context missional discipleship allows the missio dei to shape us in our engagement our practices and sustain us in the lifelong journey of becoming and developing disciples that follow jesus today a commentary on the twenty first century church and its lack of conformity to the first century church model especially in the areas of personal evangelism and discipleship the chapter divisions of this book delineate the various dynamics powerful forces involved in discipleship and how each of these forces contributes to a church so it can function in a way that makes a powerful impact on the world around it when the author refers to the church he is referring to an organism the body of christ rather than an organization a denomination or local assembly the church of jesus christ is made up of real living individuals who are true followers of christ regardless of what church they attend in the early church the only designation that distinguished one church from another was its location all quoted texts are from the king james version of the bible what does it mean to be a disciple of jesus today and why should you want to be one using the gospel of john as his roadmap father brice higinbotham invites you to join him on an inspiring exploration of what scripture tells us about being a disciple of jesus and how christian discipleship brings peace and fulfillment to your daily life by delving into jesus encounters with real people the author provides practical guidance for healthy spiritual living based on two primary concepts believing in jesus and remaining with or staying true to jesus in good times and bad father brice introduces you to jesus first disciples offering a lens through which you can see yourself in the experiences of these men and women unpacking these historical encounters he makes them as relevant to modern life as they were to christ s first followers most practically he presents a four part program of discipleship according to the gospel that can uplift and transform your faith life through fellowship with jesus join father brice on a fulfilling journey to true discipleship gary tyra s constructive study of the sermon on the mount seeks to revitalize discipleship by exposing and rooting out the modern incidence of pharisaism legalism dogmatism separatism judgmentalism etc among evangelical churches today this book explores the intersections of neuroscience and christian formation serving as an introductory textbook for college or seminary courses it covers neuroscience s impact on faith formation teaching development and worship with chapters on personal meditation intercultural encounters and congregational formation following a critical analysis of the pedagogical theology and practice of christian learning this book develops a radical alternative account of faith learning recognising the ways in which institutionally anxious churches are turning to processes of education and discipling it takes the reader through a theological action research journey to offer a practical theological response to the question of how christian faith is learnt and handed on in ways that really make a difference through close engagement with the practicalities of one declining denomination british methodism the authors offer a distinctive vision of christian learning and enable fresh thinking and practice there is a call for a move beyond educational courses towards a more profound engagement with the complexities of real life as not only the place but the matter of faith learning theologically the book offers a vision which pursues questions of divine and human agency the work of the spirit in learning the role of normative tradition and the important place of christian lay people and their daily lives in learning ultimately it seeks to give substance to a fresh concept of faith learning which is holistic integrative and inductively achieved and finds its fulfilment in lives lived in faith hope and love
