despite jesus prayer that all christians be one divisions have been epidemic in the body of christ from the beginning to the present we cluster in theological groups gender groups age groups ethnic groups educational and economic groups we criticize freely those who disagree with us don t look like us don t act like us and don t even like what we like though we may think we know why this happens christena cleveland says we probably don t in this eye opening book learn the hidden reasons behind conflict and divisions learn why i think all my friends are unique but those in other groups are all the same why little differences often become big sources of conflict why categorizing others is often automatic and helpful but can also have sinister side effects why we are so often victims of groupthink and how we can avoid it why women think men are judging them more negatively than men actually are and vice versa why choices of language can actually affect unity with a personal touch and the trained eye of a social psychologist cleveland brings to bear the latest studies and research on the unseen dynamics at work that tend to separate us from others learn why christians who have a heart for unity have such a hard time actually uniting the author provides real insight for ministry leaders who have attempted to build bridges across boundaries here are the tools we need to understand how we can overcome the hidden forces that divide us throughout the centuries christians have longed to be united with one another supporting each other and working in harmony but our reality is very different and we need only to read the new testament to realize that disunity has been with us from the start what can we do to foster unity and deeper community in a world where so many relationships are fractured and fractious luder whitlock jr explores god s desire for unity in the church overviews the history of global christianity with an eye on its schisms and agreements and points us toward the necessity of god honoring fellowship laying out steps we can take to increase trust and develop understanding especially within the church as governments grow increasingly unsupportive of christianity it is even more important for us to listen to each other and work together for the common good despite our many differences the church has been entrusted with god s revelation and to steward the word of truth we must confess the bible s teaching with clarity and conviction adam harwood s christian theology is both biblically faithful and historically informed providing a fresh synthesis of the essential doctrines of the faith writing from a free will baptist perspective harwood brings fresh insights that many systematic theologies lack with readable prose suggestions for further study and discussion questions christian theology will equip students and pastors to clarify and articulate what they believe and why in the following i take for granted the theological basis of the catholic ecumenical movement we believe that the catholic church is the one true church of jesus christ united to him as his earthly body but we also believe that men outside the church in good faith who confess jesus christ as god and saviour and are baptized in water and the holy ghost are truly christian reborn in christ alive in the spirit and hence despite their separation our christian brethren i take for granted in these pages that christian faith and supernatural charity are found in communities beyond the visible boundaries of the catholic church and that christians guiltlessly separated from us have access to sacramental grace and spiritual life this book is not written simply to give information it is also a plea its purpose is to create a sense of urgency among catholics there is so much we can do for christian unity even as lay people we must find new dimensions of christian charity we must discover a new vision of the church s ecumenical task and we must pray and suffer for unity knowing that these are the mainsprings of any renewal in the church foreword the book is concerned with a deciphering process that enhances the texts of revelation with data regarding the end times of individuals rather than the end times of the world the deciphered texts do not usurp the original texts but are dependent on them the deciphering process is unique as it is a discovery of a process not an invention of one the work was like a cryptoquote where one letter stands for another the difference is that one word stands for another this book is for adult christians who seek a spiritual lift and want to get back on the wagon so to speak regarding their faith walk and for those who would appreciate the spiritual jolt this book provides includes recent papal letters addresses and other major church documents
