an updated and revised edition of the most popular general knowledge manual this book investigates knowledge interactions in china s foreign enterprises it reveals that cultural differences strongly account for knowledge related obstacles namely knowledge leakage and insufficient knowledge sharing contrary to conventional wisdom however widespread cultural arguments such as confucianism or collectivism hardly apply to chinese employees handling of knowledge in fact more subtle cultural logics are relevant in daily work which are connected to the perceived stability of the enterprise itself but these usually go unnoticed thus rather than being distracted by a national chinese culture managers can take real action to solve knowledge conflicts in their particular enterprise most optometrists don t perform medical eye services certainly not exclusively you can develop a successful practice while providing a much needed service by bucking this trend jeffrey sedgewick o d m d spent 4 years as a practicing optometrist prior to entering medical school while practicing as an optometrist and as an ophthalmologist he has seen many examples of poor medical care by optometrists himself included he is convinced that it doesn t have to be this way he believes optometrists who start their own medical optometry practice can fill an increasingly important function but they need more knowledge and clinical experience which he seeks to provide in this textbook in his web site theodmdconsultinggroup com in future courses and as a consultant to your medical optometry practice
