most people in our country become fascinated by stories reported by favorite newscasters walter cronkite and ed murrow being two prime examples that had wide audiences who accepted their comments and reported their news and views as gospel chicago on the other hand began a love affair with a street reporter named studs terkel 1912 2008 whose 45 year career of recording interviews with a wide spectrum of street people and common folk who were asked for their views on what they liked hated living circumstances and an abundance of topics that they tolerated but despised racial views being a prime topic of comments the people terkel sought out were the homeless streetwalkers prostitutes cops firemen celebrities doctors teachers businessmen and a full spectrum of people in the building trades usually those he chose to interview were more than pleased to be asked for their comments and would pour out stories that made terkel s hour long radio broadcasts on chicagos wfmt s a fascinating listening experience as if the person being interviewed hadn t bared enough of his her soul to the reporter terkel would wait until their story was finished before then asking them and then what happened the shock of this quest invariably resulted with additional startling stories coming out of the mouths of the victims studs had chosen to interview in fact these comments asked the people he interviewed after the first part of the story they rendered revealed secrets and things that the person had never mentioned to anybody they were like icing added to a cake and turned out to be the fascination that brought the reporter abundant listeners as well as rendering studs
