disenthralling ourselves portrays contemporary israel in a process of transition jewish israeli and palestinian israeli communities share a nation state divided by the separate truths of its conflicting fundamental narratives this book considers ways of converting those separate and antagonistic narratives from fuel for conflict to seeds of change its purpose is to undo the convenient coherence of collective memory and master narratives through fostering a capacious moral imagination able to apprehend diverse even contentious stories and truths contemporary israel functions as a case study in an in depth and interdisciplinary exploration of conflict resolution viewing jewish israeli and palestinian israeli docpostwar italian and european cinema it is much less known especially outside of italy that such success has much to do with the writings of his fifteen year collaborator and scriptwriter ennio flaiano 1910 72 journalist novelist dramatist and theater and film critic this book identifies the ways in which flaiano s distinctive travel diary satirically registering the transformative journey from provincial italian to global citizen captured and shaped the changing tastes of an entire generation of italians on the film set in the newspaper office and on the street the book highlights flaiano s uneven yet steadily developing anticolonialist stance his emerging postmodern autobiography and his interrogation of notions of regional national and cultural superiority marisa s trubiano is assistant professor of italian at montclair state university value is arguably one of the key concepts of the globalized world in this world to be is to be or have a value while all thinking and implementing has the form of valuing and evaluating thanks to their operative expediency both the concept of value and thinking through values appear as sufficient and such as not to need any interrogation as to their provenance and implications the essays of this volume on the other hand provide insights precisely in these aspects by presenting on the one hand classical philosophical sources on value and on the other readings that show how the concept of value shapes our manner of thinking in pivotal issues and domains of economics culture and knowledge in honor of the writings of giulio busi scholar of jewish culture the book investigates from a multidisciplinary perspective the extraordinary richness of jewish culture in the diaspora from antiquity to the latter part of the 20th century a number of rabbinic writings medieval manuscripts from the south of france visual qabbalah the yiddish language artistic expressions as well as the philosophical and social traditions of some prominent twentieth century figures will be explored while the jewish cultural tradition has always incorporated the cultural influences of the broader socio historical context in which it was embedded it has in turn been a source of inspiration for the intellectual elite of the majority society in this regard the volume will examine the fruitful mutual exchange between jewish scholars and christian humanists during the renaissance however the life of jews in the diaspora did not always take place in a context of peaceful integration it was punctuated by harsh confrontations and persecution finally the book will illustrate how precisely during the darkest and most tragic period of the 20th century jewish culture was an important tool of resistance and struggle against nazi fascism transnational italian studies is specifically targeted at a student audience and is designed to be used as a key text when approaching the disciplinary field of italian studies it allows the study of italian culture to be construed and practised not simply as the inquiry into a national tradition but as the study of the interaction of cultural practices both within italy itself and in those parts of the world that have witnessed the extent of italian mobility the text argues that italian culture needs to be considered in a transnational transcultural perspective and that an understanding of linguistic and cultural translation underlies all approaches to the study of italian culture in a global context contributions deploy a range of methodological approaches to understand and illustrate how language operates how culture inhabits and constitutes public and private space how notions of time operate within people s lives and the multiple ways in which people experience a sense of personhood chapters stretch from the medieval period to the present and demonstrate how transnational italian culture can be critically addressed through the examination of carefully chosen examples contributors alessandra diazzi andrea rizzi barbara spadaro charles burdett clorinda donato david bowe derek duncan donna gabaccia eugenia paulicelli fabio camilletti giuliana muscio jennifer burns loredana polezzi marco santello monica jansen naomi wells nathalie hester serena bassi stefania tufi teresa fiore and tristan kay
