paul's letter to the romans has been called the quintessence and perfection of saving doctrine perhaps the most challenging and thoroughly doctrinal book of the entire new testament romans deals with many issues that are basic to christian theology and practice in the epistle to the romans respected new testament scholar douglas moo provides a superb study of paul s letter to the roman christians and restates the enduring message of romans for christians today originally written for the wycliffe exegetical commentary series this work has been substantially expanded and adapted for the nicnt series it now treats the entire book of romans rather than the first half based on the english text but bringing into the discussion the underlying greek at every point this commentary focuses both on theological meaning and on contemporary significance moo makes a contribution to the continuing debate regarding paul s teaching on such issues as jewish law and the relationship between the jews and gentiles in the people of god he also critically interacts with the new perspective on paul highlights romans s emphasis on practical divinity and traces the theme of gospel throughout the epistle for more than twenty years douglas moo s nicnt volume on romans has been providing pastors students and scholars with profound insight into paul s most famous letter in this thorough revision of his commentary moo deals with issues that have come into prominence since the first edition 1996 incorporating the latest research and rewriting the text throughout for better comprehension exegetically astute and theologically minded moo interacts critically with the new perspective on paul highlights the emphasis in romans on practical divinity and traces the theme of the gospel throughout the letter his letter to the romans in this second edition will inform and enlighten a new generation of serious bible readers god s saved israel examines identity in the pauline corpus in terms of how paul expresses the new identity in christ in relation to the identity of ancient israel in this study the way in which paul uses the terms israel israelite and judean is approached on the basis of the way in which these terms were used in the second temple period by both insiders and outsiders rather than presupposing that paul used it in a different way by thoroughly engaging with the new perspective on paul and the radical new perspective on paul paul s conception of identity is pursued mainly along theological exegetical lines especially in terms of the contrast between flesh and s spirit while rom 11 26 which points to all israel that will be saved and gal 6 16 which points to the israel of god who are blessed are often utilized in a paradigmatic way to interpret the rest of paul the approach in this book is the other way around these two texts are approached by first assessing paul s conception of identity in the whole of the pauline corpus and then by interpreting rom 11 26 and gal 6 16 with a larger understanding of identity in paul at hand this book argues that paul's seminal thesis on human moral formation in romans 12:1-2 can be best understood when it is interpreted through the lens of a philosophical and theological anthropology that merges the views of thomas aquinas and james k a smith in his epistles paul at various points uses maternal imagery to talk about his apostolic labors sometimes actually referring to himself as a mother for example paul writes that he must behave like a nurse caring for her own children later he writes he is in labor again and must continue to nurse his fellow christians with milk these images though known among earlier generations of christians today remain largely both unacknowledged and unexplored in thinking about paul and his work in our mother saint paul beverly gaventa retrieves these images explores their significance for understanding apostolic ministry and demonstrates how they point beyond their original contexts and offer unique perspectives for understanding paul's thought as well as the larger cosmic understanding of the gospel

the phrase works of the law occurs only in the dead sea scrolls and in paul but it has a different connotation in each corpus at qumran the works of the law are deeds of obedience to god's law and are ultimately inspired by god they function as a means of atonement whether for the individual who performs them or for the sins of others for paul on the other hand the works of the law are quintessentially the works of abraham though they are indeed good deeds abraham himself was a sinful man and so his deeds could not make atonement for himself or for others in fact paul is reacting against the idea of abraham as a redeemer figure that was held by some of his contemporaries the phrase works of the law thus takes on a negative coloration in paul as a deceptively false means of salvation against qumran paul s position is that justification must be effected apart from works of the law and thus by jesus christ abraham is no second adam as some were thinking and his good deeds epitomized in his sacrifice of isaac had no atoning value this closely reasoned study makes an important contribution to the study of new testament theology it undertakes to settle some long standing debates about paul s soteriology by proposing an alternative both to traditional interpretation of paul and to the new perspective on paul this volume contains 28 essays in honor of abraham j malherbe whose work has been especially influential in exploring modes of cultural interaction between early jews and christians and their graeco roman neighbours following an introductory essay on the problems inherent to such comparative studies in the history of new testament scholarship the essays are grouped into five topic areas graphos semantics and writing ethos ethics and moral characterization logos rhetoric and literary expression ethnos self definition and acculturation and nomos law and normative values some key examples are studies dealing with the greek idea of divine nature and its relation to the divine man tradition compilation of letters in cicero s collection radical altruism in paul greek ideas of concord and cosmic harmony in 1 clement the rhetorical use of friendship motifs in galatians in comparison with second sophistic orators wills and testaments in graeco roman perspective deeply conversant in the full range of questions and interpretations of the letter jewett s commentary explores the crucial and controverted passages that have always animated studies of romans jewett also incorporates the exciting new insights from archaeology of the city of rome social history of early christianity social scientific work on early christianity and the interpretation and reception of paul s letter through the ages breaking free from abstract approaches that defend traditional theologies jewett shows that the entire letter aims to elicit support for paul s forthcoming mission to the barbarians in spain his work specifically focuses on paul s missionary plans and how they figure in the letter on paul s critical and constructive tack with the roman community and finally and especially on how paul s letter reframes the entire system of honor and shame as it informed life in the roman empire at the time the latter remains a pertinent message today the first commentary to interpret romans within the imperial context as well as in the light of the situation in spain this landmark commentary twenty five years in the making will set the standard for interpretation of romans for the next generation this festschrift in honour of richard n longenecker author of paul apostle of liberty the christology of early jewish christianity the ministry and message of paul biblical exegesis in the apostolic period the acts of the apostles in the expositor s bible commentary new testament social ethics for today and galatians word biblical commentary is centered on the theme of gospel in paul notable pauline scholars discuss gospel from five different perspectives the historical the theological the hermeneutical the rhetorical and the epistolary each author discusses one of these five perspectives within one part of paul s correspondence 1 gospel in romans 2 gospel in galatians and 3 gospel in the corinthian letters the volume promotes discussion both on methods of reading paul s letters and on important historical theological and hermenutical issues the purpose of this book is to provide a biblical theological answer to isaiah s question why o lord do you cause us to stray from your ways and harden our heart from fearing you

james r harrison argues that the graeco roman benefaction context of favour is the backdrop of paul s understanding of divine and humane grace by the first century ad was the leitmotiv of the hellenistic reciprocity system it shaped the conventions of giving and receiving throughout the eastern mediterranean basin before paul s converts were exposed to the gospel they would have held various beliefs regarding divine beneficence the apostle needed to tailor his language of grace as much to the theological concerns of graeco roman culture as to first century judaism in making benefaction terminology the touchstone of his theology of grace paul chose to articulate his understanding of over and against the theological and social beliefs of the mediterranean city states and the imperial rulers while paul endorses the reciprocity system he redefines its rationale in the light of the gospel of grace and transforms its social expression in his house churches
