the eminent african novelist and critic here addresses nigeria s problems aiming to challenge the resignation of nigerians and inspire them to reject old habits which inhibit nigeria from becoming a modern and attractive country in this famous book now reprinted he professes that the only trouble with nigeria is the failure of leadership because with good leaders nigeria could resolve its inherent problems such as tribalism lack of patriotism social injustice and the cult of mediocrity indiscipline and corruption at the start of nigeria s fourth republic on 29 may 1999 there was great optimism as to the emergence of a new democratic future representing a significant break from the political undulations of the past two decades and four presidential epochs later there is a prevalent question as to how well nigeria has fared in governance and human rights post 1999 this book revisits the democratic new dawn of the fourth republic discussing pertinent matters integral to nigeria s democratic future post 2019 in light of this research work the vatican ii council remains a landmark and its document apostolicam actuositatem what we decided to call a text of witness of actions for the catholic laity the decree on the apostolate of the laity inter alia lumen gentium and gaudium et spes that border on the mission of the catholic laity in the human society is a great achievement after the vatican ii council the church saw the need to enhance and harness the witnessing message of the council for the catholic laity mission in the church and in the world in the light of the foregoing this work is part of these efforts we developed a hermeneutical model via the political theology of johann baptist metz in the light of the vatican ii council message that becomes a challenge for concrete action of the nigerian catholic laity in the existential socio political situation of nigeria the politics of biafra and future of nigeria is a reflection on the importance of history in addressing present realities and the future of coexistence of nigeria s multi ethnic society it analyses the ideological struggles and conflict in biafra during the war with nigeria from 1967 1970 the impact of the war and the relevance of those struggles to the current agitations for a new state of biafra in this historical and analytical work the author observes that nearly fifty years after the end of the nigerian biafra war in 1970 nigeria is still grappling with the biafran dilemma no matter its pretensions nigeria will at some point have to reform its present pseudo federal arrangement to create a more inclusive equitable and proper federal structure if not the country will continue to face epileptic developmental thrusts militancy in the niger delta and a ruinous intensifying clamour for self determination by disadvantaged ethnic groups especially the igbo the author argues that in the world in the era of technology inspired globalisation it is impossible to hold an unwilling people hostage in any country without negative consequences he makes a case for a new order in nigeria expressing the view that nigeria is caught in a vicious circle of graft and instability and nothing will change until nigeria finds the proper foundational matrix to galvanise the talents and resources of the people and create a productive economy under the fourth republic since 1999 the challenge nigerian leaders face like never before is how to create a state that matches the expectations of their diverse peoples at home and abroad taking this proposition as starting point this book advances proposals for a human right policy referred to alternately in the work as principled foreign policy for nigeria under the fourth republic taking advantage of the inestimable opportunity afforded by general muhammadu buhari s departure from the political scene on may 29 2023 after the famine domestically and externally wrought by his two terms of office as president it is a broad ranging argument draped in the less arcane constitutional vocabulary and material of human rights for thoroughgoing reforms at home and abroad as the only antidote to the nation building dilemmas nigeria confronts in the first quarter of the twenty first century buhari s departure marks the end of military teleguidance of nigerian politics under the fourth republic in the camouflage of democratic rule a birthmark of remote control dating back to the first military intervention in the country in january 1966 these momentous events within nigeria coincide with equally epoch making developments in the uk nigeria s former colonial overlord with ripple effects in nigeria signified by the death of queen elizabeth ii after seven decades on the throne and the emergence of prince charles as king of england a new monarch in britain adds to the opportunity that falls open for the reconfiguration of nigeria s external relations with ramifications for the application of human rights in those relations despite its known disabilities nigeria has the potential infrastructure including its sizable population to conduct a human right policy if its leaders rationalize the country s resources more wisely
