based on the first in a series of countless fantasy books by bestselling authors margaret weis and tracy hickman dragonlance dragons of autumn twilight is the first animated feature length film spun from the venerable dungeons and dragons role playing game the 90 minute feature hews as closely to the 400 plus page source material as possible in a nutshell a group of adventurers seek to head off the evil plans of a multi headed dragon goddess and her army with the help of a crystal staff and there is plentiful swordplay and spellcasting to keep younger viewers entranced and the voice talent which includes kiefer sutherland xena s lucy lawless and michael rosenbaum of smallville does a respectable job of making the heavy handed dialogue sound believable however the animation a mix of 2d and cgi is truly dreadful and brings the epic scope of the story down to the level of saturday morning cartoons supplemental material might ve helped make this middling dvd more palatable but sadly there s only a few clips of original test animation which looks slightly better than the finished product and a gallery of early character designs
