do ancient maps prove that the planet was surveyed 12 000 years ago were the poles once in a different position to where they are today is there a secret pattern joining the great sites of antiquity in this revolutionary little book ancient sites expert hugh newman outlines various theories concerning geometry in the distribution of sacred sites on earth and comes to some startling conclusions illustrated throughout with fantastic graphics this book will change your world wooden books are small but packed with information e fascinating e financial times e beautiful e london review of books e rich and artful e the lancet e genuinely mind expanding e forteen times e excellent e new scientist e stunning e new york times small books big ideas

this work is a personal exploration of seven ancient sites as sacred heritage and the relation of each one to one of the seven major chakras in travelling to a sacred place one discovers the site's spiritual power within its actual setting each site is related to a specific chakra on the basis of the author's experience there and the symbolism and concept associated with the chakra each chapter begins with an original poem and ends with a guided meditation gaia's gift the second of anne primavesi's explorations of human relationships with the earth asks that we complete the ideological revolution set in motion by copernicus and darwin concerning human importance they challenged the notion of our god given centrality within the universe and within earth's evolutionary history yet as our continuing exploitation of earth's resources and species demonstrates we remain wedded to the theological assumption that these are there for our sole use and benefit now james lovelock's scientific understanding of the existential reality of gaia's gift of life again raises the question of our proper place within the universe it turns us decisively towards an understanding of ourselves as dependent on rather than in control of the whole earth community this collection of accessible essays relates the stories of individual goddesses from around the world exploring their roles in the cultures from which they came their histories and status today and the controversies surrounding them goddesses in world culture brings readers the fascinating stories of close to 100 of the world's goddesses ranging from the immediately recognizable to the obscure these figures many of whom derive from ancient cultures and civilizations serve as points of departure for examining questions that go well beyond the role of women in religion and spirituality to include social organization environmental awareness historical developments and psychological archetypes each volume of this groundbreaking set is composed of 20-25 previously unpublished articles written by expert contributors from diverse disciplines volume one covers asia and africa volume two covers the eastern mediterranean and europe and volume three covers australia and the americas goddesses from cultures often overlooked in texts on religion such as those of the australian aborigines korea nepal and the caribbean are included here in addition the work offers new translations of ancient texts introduces little known folklore and suggests new approaches to contemporary religious practices during the last 30 years advanced architecture has consolidated an interactive and informational logic that differs from that of modernity and postmodernity this logic is threefold it is modulated through three coexisting protocols modes of action whose peaks of intensity occur in three different decades conformative protocols 1990 2000 distributive protocols 2000 2010 and expansive protocols 2010 2020 this work proposes a threefold cultural narrative whose interactive and informational logic differs from that of modernity and postmodernity it positions three different ethos by critically approaching the architectural side of a cultural mutation that has been affecting the western experimental areas of knowledge and practice since the end of the last century a transformative process constituted by a constellation of transdisciplinary manifestations accelerations turns shortcuts and clusterizations that by no means can be read under one single epistemological umbrella in this sense rather than approaching the practice of architecture focusing on its disciplinary inner specificity this book approaches the research of experimental architecture focusing on its extra disciplinary entanglements it argues that a vast multiplicity of fields of knowledge participates in a cultural endeavour modulated through three protocols forms of action that singularize three decades conformative protocols 1990 2000 distributive protocols 2000 2010 and expansive protocols 2010 2020 these three periods shouldn't be read as three hermetic and concatenated monads but as three different modulations of the same narrative that is as three overlapping and coexisting systems whose peaks of intensity occur in three different decades however the main purpose of this book is not limited to unveiling the ethos of these three conjugations it also aims at using this framework as a time field a narrative map that moves from the classificatory to the cartographical in order to vectorize the last 30 years of experimental architecture in this sense this book argues that this threefold set of protocols represents the progressive attempt to constitute critical interiorities looking for and produced through interactions that are increasingly more intimate and whose agents are increasingly more diverse a tendency oriented towards the consolidation of an intimacy between strangers that highly resonates with the cultural and technological landscape in which experimental architecture operates landscape is examines the implicit biases and received meanings of landscape following on from the previous publication is landscape which examined the plural and promiscuous identities of the landscape idea this companion volume reflects upon the diverse and multiple meanings of landscape as a discipline profession and medium this book is intended for academics researchers and students in landscape architecture and cognate disciplines chapters address various overlooked aspects of landscape that develop disturb and diversify received understandings of the field framed as an inquiry into the relationship of landscape to the forms of human subjectivity the book features contributions from leading voices who challenge the contemporary understandings of the field in relation to capital and class race and gender power and politics and more this book is a rigorous account of architecture's theoretical and technological concerns over the last decade the anthology presents projects and essays produced at the end of the first digital turn and the start of the second digital turn this anthology engages and deploys a variety of discourses topics criteria pedagogies and technologies including some of today's most influential architects practitioners academics and critics it is an unflinchingly rigorous and unapologetic account of architecture's disciplinary concerns in the last decade this is a story that has not been told in recent years everything has been refracted through the prism of the post digital generation design technology and digital production illustrates the shift to an architectural world where we can learn with and from each other develop a community of new technologies and embrace a design ecology that is inclusive open and visionary this collection fosters a sense of shared experience and common purpose along with a collective responsibility for the well being of the discipline of architecture as a whole from their personal lives at home to their roles in the realms of religion health economics governance war philosophy and poetry this is the story of ancient women in all their aspects vivante explores women's lives in four ancient civilizations of the mediterranean egypt mesopotamia greece and rome while the experiences of women in ancient cultures were certainly very different from those of most women today a tendency to focus too much on negative or restrictive images has until now provided readers with a rather incomplete picture looking at this important era from a female oriented perspective vivante widens the perceptual lens and makes it possible to highlight the fundamental empowered aspects of women's activities in order to present them in balance with the various limits imposed on their societal participation beginning with powerful images of goddesses and women's roles in the religious sphere vivante details the foundation for women's activities in all other social realms while these four mediterranean civilizations were distinctive they also influenced each other through various forms of contact trade colonization and war both the similarities and the differences permit richer comparisons and promote a deeper understanding of the lives of women in each
