The Annabelle Doll Another notable investigation was into the infamous Annabelle doll, which the Warrens claimed was possessed by a demonic entity. The doll, a Raggedy Ann, was said to have caused various malicious phenomena. The Warrens took the doll into their possession and housed it in their Occult Museum, where it remains on display as a cautionary artifact. Their research into Annabelle contributed to their broader work on demonic objects and cursed artifacts, emphasizing the importance of caution and respect when dealing with the supernatural.
