none of the world s lost writings have proven more perplexing than the mysterious script in which the inka empire kept its records ancient andean peoples encoded knowledge in knotted cords of cotton or wool called khipus in the cord keepers the distinguished anthropologist frank salomon breaks new ground with a close ethnography of one andean village where villagers surprisingly have conserved a set of these enigmatic cords to the present day the quipocamayos as the villagers call them form a sacred patrimony keying his reading to the internal life of the ancient kin groups that own the khipus salomon suggests that the multicolored cords with their knots and lavishly woven ornaments did not mimic speech as most systems of writing do but instead were anchored in nonverbal codes the cord keepers makes a compelling argument for a close intrinsic link between rituals and visual sign systems it indicates that while andean graphic representation may differ radically from familiar ideas of writing it may not lie beyond the reach of scholarly interpretation in 1994 salomon witnessed the use of khipus as civic regalia on the heights of tupicocha in peru s central huarochirí region by observing the rich ritual surrounding them studying the village s written records from past centuries and analyzing the khipus themselves salomon opens a fresh chapter in the quest for khipu decipherment he draws on a decade s field research early colonial records and radiocarbon and fiber analysis challenging the prevailing idea that the use of khipus ended under early spanish colonial rule salomon reveals that these beautiful objects served apparently as late as the early twentieth century to document households contribution to their kin groups and these kin groups contribution to their village the cord keepers is a major contribution to andean history and more broadly to understandings of writing and literacy catálogo de manuscr poéticos dir p jauralde pou el catálogo de los manuscritos poéticos castellanos de los siglos xvi y xvii de la biblioteca nacional de madrid es el resultado de más de once años de trabajo de un amplio equipo de investigación que se ha venido denominando genéricamente edad de oro y que se ha identificado con la universidad autónoma de madrid la dirección del equipo ha corrido a cargo del profesor pablo jauralde y el objetivo del proyecto de investigación no ha sido otro que la revisión minuciosa de todos los manuscritos existentes en la b n de madrid a fin de desentrañar cuáles contienen poesía castellana de los siglos xvi xvii aunque sean de letra posterior o aunque la poesía de estos siglos sea escasa o mínima en un conjunto de poesía de otras épocas también se cataloga cualquier manuscrito que tenga poesía de esta época aunque sea un solo poema y el resto no guarde relación con el asunto prosa ensayos documentos en estos últimos casos se cataloga íntegramente el manuscrito porque es la única manera de presentar los poemas en su contexto por muy trabajoso que resulte bien es verdad que en las entradas a lo que no es poesía no se han dado descripciones rigurosas por ejemplo con incipit y explicit la misma fórmula rápida se ha empleado para poesía en lengua no castellana las entradas fundamentales de cada descripción son número de manuscrito título y autor descripción externa descripción interna edición y bibliografía contenido cada una de ellas se explica por sí misma pero quizá convendría decir que en el apartado bibliografía y ediciones se ha buscado una fórmula ponderada que informe al consultor del estado de la cuestión cuando se trata de un poeta de primera fila de modo que no faltará una vez terminado el catálogo al menos una entrada completa para cada uno de los autores esenciales y a esta entrada y número de manuscrito se referirán las restantes también se accede a ella mediante uno de los índices en ningún caso se ha intentado la exhaustividad aunque autores hay por ejemplo san juan de la cruz quevedo góngora que poseen una tradición manuscrita más rica y compleja que otros por ejemplo que lope en la descripción del contenido se ha respetado la ortografía del manuscrito desarrollando sin señalarlo las abreviaturas más comunes añadiendo acentuación y puntuación con criterios modernos las enmiendas y adiciones van entre corchetes nunca ha sido intención de los catalogadores el ir más allá de la descripción objetiva para iniciar un estudio de atribuciones porque de lo contrario como sabe quien haya trabajado en estos temas este catálogo no se hubiera podido realizar de modo que las pocas veces que se ha señalado entre corchetes alguna autoría evidente ha sido para apoyarnos mejor en el proceso de catalogación debe tenerse en cuenta por tanto el absoluto respeto de los catalogadores por lo que el manuscrito dice para quienes crean que las atribuciones es tarea fundamental como lo es pero de otro cantar nada mejor que brindarles ahora este trabajo con el que sin duda podrán ellos mismos emprenderla cosa que hasta ahora resultaba muy difícil hasta la fecha se han catalogado 10 000 manuscritos repartidos según indica el plan de la obra y se ha realizado un tomo común de índices estructurade la obra vol 1 manuscritos 1 al 3 745 xxx 658 págs vol 2 del 3 746 al 3 950 xxviii 682 págs vol 3 del 3 951 al 4 145 xxviii 684 págs vol 4 del 4 146 al 9 998 xxviii 692 págs vol 5 Índices xii 724 págs
