this remarkable gallery of portraits brings together some of the most famous and influential people of the victorian era from literary giants to political leaders featuring over 150 illustrations each accompanied by a facsimile of the celebrity s signature cassell s universal portrait gallery provides a fascinating glimpse into the world of 19th century celebrity culture whether you re a history buff or a lover of art this volume is sure to captivate and inspire this work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it this work is in the public domain in the united states of america and possibly other nations within the united states you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public we appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant

the portrait is one of the most pure collaborative efforts in the art world the artist is the creator but she or he is wholly dependent on the sitter for inspiration and stimulus when the subject is famous the artist must often compromise true expression for the vanity of the person being painted though that would seemingly make the portrait less appealing artistically in truth the collaborative nature of the portrait often makes it artistically unique a blending of the artist's style with the desires of the sitter this work takes a fresh look at the portraits of 13 american women marian anderson clara barton mary mcleod bethune pearl buck mary cassatt isadora duncan marianne moore georgia o'keeffe eleanor roosevelt gertrude stein harriet beecher stowe harriet tubman and martha washington and the artists who created them in examining the work of such artists as abraham walkowitz john graham betsy graves reyneau michael alexander werboff and brenda putnam one comes to see the unique combination of the personality of the sitter and the style of the artist excerpt from word portraits of famous writers the world has always been fond of personal details respecting men who have been celebrated these were the words of lord beaconsfield and with them he prefixed his description of the personal appearance of isaac d israeli but we hardly need the dictum of our greatest statesman to convince ourselves that at all events every honest literature lover takes a very real interest in the individuality of those men whose names are perpetually on his lips it is not enough for such a one merely to make himself familiar with their writings about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
