Understanding Ashford University's English Proficiency Requirements

Ashford University's English proficiency requirement ensures that students possess the necessary language skills to succeed in their chosen academic program. The specific requirements may vary depending on your program and country of origin. Generally, international students or those whose native language is not English are most likely to need to take a proficiency exam. This is not solely about grammar; it encompasses a broader understanding of English language conventions, including reading comprehension, writing mechanics, and vocabulary. The university employs various methods to assess English proficiency, including Accuplacer, a widely used computerized placement test designed to assess college-level skills in reading, writing, and mathematics. The English sections often include multiple-choice questions evaluating grammar, sentence structure, and reading comprehension passages.
