many languages particularly those which have achieved literary status have been studied in great detail and specialized descriptions of these are plentiful what has not been so readily available however is a general survey covering a wide spectrum of the world s languages on a comparative basis it is this kind of comparative cross section of languages ranging from the familiar and well documented to the relatively obscure that the compendium of the world's languages presents a landmark English translation of Sindhi literature's most famous classic Shah Abdul Latif's Risalo loosely translated as The Message is widely regarded as the pinnacle of Sindhi literature cherished across South Asia and the diaspora. This collection of Sufi verses originally crafted for musical performance in the eighteenth century weaves a rich tapestry of mystical and divine love drawing on both Islamic tradition and local Sindhi culture. Latif's poetry also immortalizes timeless love stories such as those of Sasui Punhun Suhini, Mehar Sohni, Mahiwal, and Lila Chanesar which continue to captivate millions. Latif (1689-1752) is a revered Sufi saint whose shrine is a beloved pilgrimage site in present-day Pakistan. His Risalo reflects a deep commitment to bringing together Islamic as well as Hindu devotional and ascetic traditions and includes verses celebrating the spirituality of yogis. This first authoritative translation into modern English introduces a new generation to one of the greatest treasures of Indo-Islamic literature.
