the sermon on the mount is perhaps the most famous passage in the gospel of matthew even unbelievers like mahatma gandhi appreciate the teaching of the sermon and applaud the high morality it espouses others see in statements like Òlove your enemies and Òturn the other cheek a powerful rhetoric against war and violence most christians are familiar with the sermon and see it as delineating important ethical principles for christian living familiarity with the sermon however can ironically prevent christians from understanding its true message and significance some for instance see the sermon merely as a body of Òethical teachings that has some practical relevance many find some of its imperatives too idealistic in this book chia asks basic questions as he reflects on the sermon on the mount what is the main focus of the sermon does the sermon present a code of conduct for christians or is the sermon really about the dawn of a new eschatological community inaugurated by jesus christ chia maintains that the sermon can be properly understood and its significance firmly grasped only when it is read in the light of christ and god s eschatological kingdom the sermon presents the attitude values and conduct of the new community that christ has gathered in his name but this new reality that has dawned awaits fulfillment at the consummation of the kingdom of god in the ambivalence of the Òalready and Ònot yet the sermon depicts christian discipleship as an Òimpossible possibility yet the sermon clearly challenges christ s disciples to be a community of character and to embody an ethic which is inimical to that of the world

if any one will piously and soberly consider the sermon which our lord jesus christ spoke on the mount as we read it in the gospel according to matthew i think that he will find in it so far as regards the highest morals a perfect standard of the christian life and this we do not rashly venture to promise but gather it from the very words of the lord himself for the sermon itself is brought to a close in such a way that it is clear there are in it all the precepts which go to mould the life for thus he speaks therefore whosoever heareth these words of mine and doeth them i will liken him unto a wise man which built his house upon a rock and the rain descended and the floods came and the winds blew and beat upon that house and it fell not for it was founded upon a rock aeterna press
