the fourth edition of this classic beginner's guide to literary studies has been fully updated throughout. Mario Klarer offers a concise and accessible discussion of central issues in English and world literature as well as film and television series starting with the basics of what constitutes a literary text. The book moves through an analysis of major genres, important periods and key theoretical approaches to literature and film. It also looks at the practicalities of finding and referencing secondary sources when writing a research paper. The expanded new edition has been updated to include a wider range of examples from world literature, cinema and television series, additional references to contemporary streaming formats, updated chapters on postcolonial theory, cultural studies, gender theory, feminism and queer theory, new sections on digital humanities, ecocriticism, literary translations and paratexts, extended explanations of traditional genres, e.g. the epic, drama and poetry, a completely revised chapter on the most recent MLA guidelines with rules for citing new media formats, the detailed glossary ensures that the book is accessible to readers of any level, making this an ideal self-study guide or a course book for introduction to literature classes.
