angela beatrice and millie are three little girls living in holland in the 1950s their mother is a manic depressive making life frightening and traumatic for them when their father leaves mummy takes fate into her own hands with near tragic result the girls are taken away from her and go to live with daddy and his new wife aunt agatha aunt agatha treats them cruelly while daddy unable to cope with any more domestic upset refuses to get involved to protect his daughters then mummy dies in suspicious circumstances angela beatrice and millie all escape in their own way through jobs marriage and even moving abroad for a while all seems well till millie is diagnosed with a brain tumour angela and beatrice look after her as best they can and she recovers only to be diagnosed with early onset dementia as a result again angela and beatrice unite in their care for millie but while they try to stimulate her mind through pictures and stories of the past they unearth many unanswered questions about the fate of mummy what motivated her how did she die have any of them inherited her disturbed mind set will they ever find the answers and finally have peace of mind and closure when daddy dies he leaves no clues and it is up to the girls to find out what really happened but has time erased vital evidence the reason fionna is writing this book is that it is a fictionalised account of true events for her the writing was cathartic and gave her a better understanding of the circumstances of the past it also gave her a better insight into the psyche of her sisters fionna is a published author short stories and is well qualified to write a comprehensive novel there are many books written on the need to change consciousness but rarely does anyone explore the depths of humanity's refusal to do so even under threat of the approaching cataclysm in our refusal to deal with climate change dave macquarrie has written such a book in it he explains both why it is so difficult for us to change and what all of us can do to become more aware and more free of the darkness within it is a superb book jim garrison president and ceo of ubiquity university and author of civilization and the transformation of power acedia is a well informed and inspired book about the historical and psychological origins of a centuries old affliction acedia masterfully connects the dots between personal psychological traumas and looming environmental collapse dr macquarrie pulls no punches yet offers a ray of hope that we just might save our future christian de quincey phd professor of philosophy and consciousness studies john f kennedy university and author of radical nature the soul of matter this is a wise searching book by an authentic scholar and seeker it helps us enter into the darker waters of our crisis and find their treasures of dark wisdom and endurance andrew harvey poet mystical scholar founder director of the institute of sacred activism and author of the hope a guide to sacred activism dr macquarrie has lifted the ancient monastic curse of acedia out of its medieval tomb and applied it aptly to the dis ease of the contemporary world his interpretation of the human resistance is perceptive and provides important insights into our present inclination to repudiate changes that demand action on our part a serious and sensitive work father john julian an episcopal priest and contemplative monk translator of julian of norwich's revelations of divine love
