the quest for freedom from hunger and repression has triggered in recent years a dramatic worldwide reform of political and economic systems never have so many people enjoyed or at least experimented with democratic institutions however many strategies for economic development in eastern europe and latin america have failed with the result that entire economic systems on both continents are being transformed this major book analyzes recent transitions to democracy and market oriented economic reforms in eastern europe and latin america drawing in a quite distinctive way on models derived from political philosophy economics and game theory professor przeworski also considers specific data on individual countries among the questions raised by the book are what should we expect from these experiments in democracy and market economy what new economic systems will emerge will these transitions result in new democracies or old dictatorships

using the metaphor of the socially constructed organization of space this text takes a broad view of the evolution of urban america from its historical roots to the present it examines how policies respond to and affect the organization of space and it looks to the future of american cities the central question of this pioneer work on the responsibility of non state actors nsas and the consequences thereof is to whom are such actors in particular armed opposition groups and business corporations accountable for their actions in armed conflict and in peace times does responsibility in international law apply to these nsas qua groups while much has been written about nsas rights and participation in the global theatre as well as the responsibility of the state and international organisations for wrongful acts by nsas scant attention has been paid to questions of nsa organizational responsibility in spite of their potential to wreak international havoc this volume offers innovative insights into this unexplored territory by analyzing responsibility questions from both theoretical and empirical perspectives this is the first book to focus on designing a financial market that works well and that includes making and or modulating detailed regulations and or rules by a computer simulation of an agent based artificial financial market model abafmm the design of a financial market is very important for the development and maintenance of an advanced economy but designing it is not easy because changes in detailed rules even those that seem trivial sometimes have unexpectedly large impacts and side effects in a financial market which is a complex system traditional economics cannot treat a financial market as a complex system in which micro macro interaction and feedback loops have played essential roles because traditional economics can only treat macrophenomena and micro processes separately abafmm can do it however this book explains first why abafmms are needed to design financial markets and which models have good features following that explanation the book discusses how to build the models then cases of recent studies and their contributions are shown and finally the difficulties of researchers in this field are considered this book is expected to facilitate the design of more abafmms to contribute to creating financial markets that will further develop and maintain advanced economies what is the impact of evangelical christianity on africa evangelical christianity and the transformation of africa will answer this question evangelical christianity is manifesting into a strong presence in african states perhaps more than in any other place in the world given its exponential rise in africa it is increasingly clear that christianity in its evangelical form is exercising significant influence in virtually all spheres of life defining the essence of public and private life drawing on original works from leading scholars in humanities and social science disciplines such as afe adogame yolanda covington ward jacob olupona derek peterson shobana shankar and nimi wariboko this volume endeavors to produce a comprehensive study of evangelical christianity in africa paying careful attention to disciplinary interconnections as well as social cultural political and economic forces among other subjects essays in this volume address examples of evangelical subjectivity and identity formation against the current political backdrops of nigeria kenya the democratic republic of congo and other nations while the book works to convey the core elements of the evangelical movement across the african continent it recognizes the importance of its diverse manifestations giving additional focus to pentecostal groups and their distinct social cultural and political engagements at the same time it works to correct the unwarranted saturation of attention given to pentecostal charismatic movements in recent scholarship and expands the study of evangelicalism in africa into the sphere of mainline churches and extra ecclesial organizations authors also reflect on the ways that the african diaspora and transnational ties contribute to the make up of contemporary african evangelicalism in short this edited volume examines how the centrality of religion in african affairs political economic cultural ideological domains has contributed to turning evangelical christianity into the official face of the christian church in africa today
