the face of borges most widely known is that of the blind patrician man of letters in whose writings emotion is subjected to the play of ideas yet borges born in buenos aires in 1899 did not become virtually blind until the 1950s and in the decades before this affliction and before his books were widely translated and internationally celebrated he wrote loved and engage in local polemics with adventurous passion in jorge luis borges jason wilson explores borges tumultuous early life in the streets and cafes of buenos aires and charts his literary friendships love affairs and travels borges claimed never to have invented a character it s always me subtly disguised illuminating the connections running between the biography and the fictions wilson reminds us that borges was always a poet whose life was recreated in his work but never in confessional ways and restores his argentine roots this book will be an invaluable resource for all who treasure the modern master book jacket
