the book amazing success is based on the active principles of success the words of wisdom within it are not only derived from the inspired words of my living god but even from common sense success has its own power it can lay eggs like an eagle and fly with its new offspring soaring higher and higher above the stormy gale in this major new book leading cultural thinker ien ang engages with urgent questions of identity in an age of globalisation and diaspora the starting point for ang's discussion is the experience of visiting taiwan ang a person of chinese descent born in indonesia and raised in the netherlands found herself faced with an almost insurmountable difficulty surrounded by people who expected her to speak to them in chinese she writes it was the beginning of an almost decade long engagement with the predicaments of chineseness in diaspora in taiwan i was different because i couldn't speak chinese in the west i was different because i looked chinese from this autobiographical beginning ang goes on to reflect upon tensions between asia and the west at a national and global level and to consider the disparate meanings of chineseness in the contemporary world she offers a critique of the increasingly aggressive construction of a global chineseness and challenges western tendencies to equate chinese with asian identity ang then turns to the west exploring the paradox of australia's identity as a western country in the asian region and tracing australia's uneasy relationship with its asian neighbours from the white australia policy to contemporary multicultural society finally ang draws together her discussion of asia and the west to consider the social and intellectual space of the in between arguing for a theorising not of difference but of togetherness in contemporary societies
