this volume collects the critical prose of award winning writer anna frajlich the ghost of shakespeare takes its name from frajlich s essay on nobel prize laureate wislawa szymborska but informs her approach as a comparativist more generally as she considers the work of major polish writers of the twentieth century including zbigniew herbert czesław miłosz and bruno schulz frajlich s study of the roman theme in russian symbolism owes its origins to her stay in the eternal city the second stop on her exile from poland in 1969 the book concludes with autobiographical essays that describe her parents dramatic flight from poland at the outbreak of the war her own exile from poland in 1969

settling in new york city and building her career as a scholar and leading poet of her generation in this first ever monograph on jacques derrida s toledo confession where he portrayed himself as sort of a marrano of the french catholic culture agata bielik robson shows derrida s marranismo to be a literary experiment of auto fiction she looks at all possible aspects of derrida s marrano identification in order to demonstrate that it ultimately constitutes a trope of non identitarian evasion that permeates all his works just as marranos cannot be characterized as either jewish or christian so is derrida s universal marranism an invitation to think philosophically politically and last but not least metaphysically without rigid categories of identity and belonging by concentrating on derrida s deliberate choice of marranismo bielik robson shows that it penetrates deep into the very core of his late thinking constantly drawing on the literary works of kafka celan joyce cixous and valéry and throws a new light on his early works most of all of grammatology dissemination and différance she also offers a completely new interpretation of many of derrida s works only seemingly non related to the marrano issue like glas given time counterfeit money death penalty seminar and specters of marx in these new readings this book demonstrates that the marrano derrida is not a marginal auto biographical figure overshadowed by derrida the philosopher it is one and the same thinker who discovered marranismo as a literary trope of openness offering up a new genre of philosophical story telling which centers around derrida s marrano auto fable colonized by the french in 1830 algeria was an important french settler colony that unlike its neighbors endured a lengthy and brutal war for independence from 1954 to 1962 the nearly one million pieds noirs literally black feet were former french citizens of algeria who suffered a traumatic departure from their homes and discrimination upon arrival in france in response the once heterogeneous group unified as a community as it struggled to maintain an identity and keep the memory of colonial algeria alive remembering french algeria examines the written and visual re creation of algeria by the former french citizens of algeria from 1962 to the present by detailing the preservation and transmission of memory prompted by this traumatic experience amy l hubbell demonstrates how colonial identity is encountered reworked and sustained in pied noir literature and film with the device of repetition functioning in these literary and visual texts to create a unified and nostalgic version of the past at the same time however the pieds noirs compulsion to return compromises these efforts taking albert camus s le mythe de sisyphée and his subsequent essays on ruins as a metaphor for pied noir identity this book studies autobiographical accounts by marie cardinal jacques derrida hélène cixous and leïla sebbar as well as lesser known algerian born french citizens to analyze movement as a destabilizing and productive approach to the past volume one of this book will discuss about the true gospel of jesus as which is about the imminent coming of the son of man and the establishment of the universal kingdom of god on earth we will emphasize the fact that the entire ministry of jesus as is all about the good news of the imminent fulfillment of the son of man prophecy and the kingdom of god prophecy of prophet daniel as written in the bible based on the correct context and interpretation the son of man mentioned by jesus as refers to prophet muhammad saw and the kingdom of god refers to islam volume two will discuss about the fulfillment of the 70 weeks prophecy of prophet daniel as that this prophecy is actually a countdown to know the year jesus as and muhammad saw will come on earth jesus as is expected to arrive in the 69th week of the countdown and prophet muhammad saw will arrive in the 70th week of the countdown its exact fulfillment in history such as the year of their birth the starting year of their ministry and the year their respective messianic mission will be accomplished is a miracle or sign from Allah SWT Qur'an 20:133 and a clear evidence Qur'an 61:6 attesting the veracity of the prophethood of both Jesus and Muhammad SAW. This will explain to us why there are Jews who knew what time or year Jesus would arrive on earth and why there were Jews in Yathrib Arabia who knew what time or year Muhammad SAW would emerge as messenger of God.
