searching out the private man as well as the public figure this elegantly written biography follows henry murray through his discoveries and triumphs as a pioneer in the field of clinical psychology as a co founder of harvard s psychological clinic the co inventor of the thematic apperception test and a biographer of herman melville murray s fascination with melville s troubled genius his wartime experiences in the o s s and his close friendships with lewis mumford and conrad aiken all come to the fore in this masterly reconstruction of a life and always at the heart of this story robinson finds murray s highly erotic and mystical relationship with christiana morgan love s story told penetrates to the heart of a brilliant figure in american intellectual life at mid century as he dives deeply into the unconscious testing in work and love the limits of self exploration the growing interest in research on temperament during the last decade has been re corded by several authors e g r plomin j e bates from such sources of informa tion as the social sciences citation index or psychological abstracts the editors inquiry shows that the number of cases in which the term temperament was used in the title of a paper or in the paper s abstract published in psychological abstracts reveals an essential increase in research on temperament during the years 1975 to 1979 the term temperament was used in the title and or summary of 173 abstracts i e 34 6 publications per year during the next five years 1980 1984 it was used in 367 abstracts 73 4 publications per year whereas in the last five years 1985 to 1989 the term has appeared in 463 abstracts that is in 92 6 publications per year even if the review of temperament literature is restricted to those abstracts it can easily be concluded that temperament is used in different contexts and with different meanings hardly allowing any comparisons or general statements one of the consequences of this state of affairs is that our knowledge on temperament does not cumulate despite the increasing research activity in this field this situation in temperament research motivated the editors to organize a one week workshop on the diagnosis of temperament bielefeld federal republic of germany
