excerpt from christianity and non christian religions compared containing 800 library references to facilitate further study in this present age of seeming uncertainty in spiritual verities and of exalting the heathen religions to the position of equality with christianity it becomes necessary that we examine their actual teachings and compare them with those of the bible this is made doubly necessary since the priests and pundits of some of the non christian religions have begun to visit england and america to promulgate their oriental philosophy and metaphysics their listeners not having a knowledge of the actual character of these systems or of the saving grace of god in christ are sometimes caught by their subtle sophistry and led step by step into very absurd beliefs one of the most striking examples of this is seen in the transplanting of hinduism into christian lands under the non de plume of christian science the strongest and most satisfactory way of learning the relative value of the teachings of these various religious systems is to study them comparatively this is an exceedingly difficult task as it requires a large amount of time and patience to search through scores of volumes containing much that is tiresome and uninteresting then too it would doubtless be unwise for the average person to spend the money necessary to purchase the required number of books to get a comprehensive knowledge of these world religions this volume endeavors to gather into brief paragraphs the teachings of the leading non christian religions under about sixty fundamental topics this enables the reader to secure within a few moments a general idea of what the people of the world believe on the most important moral and spiritual subjects connected with human life a glance at the page of instructions will assist the reader in getting the most help from the book an effort has been made to give due credit to books from which quotations have been made in the very wide research necessary through a large number of volumes this may sometimes have been overlooked for which the author offers due apology about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works in the twenty first century the meaning of non christian religions for christian faith will become a central question are all religions including christianity responding to the same transcendent truth or are religions fundamentally different in faith among faiths james fredericks moves beyond the popular pluralist model of religions and explores the meaning of christianity in light of non christian religions by doing theology comparatively fredericks shows how christians can look upon religious diversity as an opportunity for enriching their own spiritual quest book jacket title summary field provided by blackwell north america inc all rights reserved this book offers a fresh perspective on early modern philosophy by highlighting pierre bayle s engagement with non christian sources if our major political ethical and epistemic doctrines were solely rooted in christian genealogies it would seem necessary to include christianity in the european constitution however this book reveals a different story the anthropological insights gained from encounters with other lands not only enriched the ethical and political discussions of philosophers historians and literati but also paralleled the incorporation of empirical data from these regions into fields like medicine botany or navigation these accounts became the building blocks for ethical and political thought a wellspring of new ideas thereby making the understanding of other cultures and religions pivotal in reflecting upon the specificities of europe pierre bayle s work exemplifies this transformative influence in the second vatican council 1962 65 the catholic church for the first time recognized non christian religions as entities which the church should respect and with which christians should enter into dialogue there are however conflicting views in catholic interpretations of conciliar theology to what extent did the council see other religions as means to salvation the author offers the catholic doctrine of non christian religions according to the second vatican council as the first comprehensive and analytic piece of research on conciliar teaching concerning the nature of other faiths his study is based on the original latin and covers conciliar and pre conciliar documents with special focus on the declaration on the relation of the church to non christian religions nostra aetate in his detailed and careful analysis ruokanen demonstrates that vaticanum secundum understood non christian religions as naturally good entities part of human culture religions express in many ways and to varying degrees the natural cognition of god and of natural moral law except for judaism they do not however possess the status of being considered channels of divine revelation or salvific grace the seeds of truth present in other faiths must be purified and perfected by the fullness of grace and truth given in christ and entrusted to the church this book compares the ideals symbols and deliverers saviors of seven major non christian religions with the christ of the new testament how do these religions relate to christ and christianity the author shows that christ is the only savior who is a historical reality and not a myth verses from scripture show who christ is and how he overshadows the myths of deliverers in non christian religions the ideals symbols and deliverers of each major religion judaism zoroastrianism islam hinduism buddhism taoism and shinto are discussed the vision of this book is that people with contact with any of the seven major religions discussed may have scripture to relate to the beliefs of these religions and be able to discuss meaningfully the significance of their beliefs with christianity the problem confronted in this book is pluralism s claim that all religions lead to god an alternative approach is presented namely that christ fulfills the ideals of any of the major religions presented throughout the discussion of each religion if the question of revelation would god give only revelation or many revelations for different cultures the purpose of the book is not simply to compare religions it is to show how the new testament christ fulfills any ideals or deliverer concepts in these non christian religions the pattern of writing is to present material from each non christian religion and compare this with christ as the more powerful the incomparable and only savior of the world some people say that outside the church there is no salvation this however is not the position of the official catholic church which teaches that jesus died to save everyone jesus and non christian religions deals with this topic in detail and endeavors to show how to help all to be saved it is a good book for anyone who desires the salvation of those outside the church it provides important information for all especially students of christology evangelization and apologetics and those interested in inter religious dialogue the first comprehensive and detailed piece of research on conciliar teaching concerning the nature of other faiths the study is based on the original latin and covers conciliar and pre conciliar documents with special focus on the declaration on the relation of the church to non christian religions nostra aetate
