someone once noted that god made us in his image and ever since we have tried to do god a favor by making him in our image it s easy to speak to others about the jesus who cared for the poor healed the sick and preached love and justice for the least of these but what about the god who tells the israelites to wage war and kill entire people groups or threatens exile and then delivers or sends people to hell can these really be the same god the simple answer is yes god in his own image takes you on a journey through the bible exploring god s true nature you ll study instances of great mercy and great severity and by the end you ll begin to see why both god s compassion and his wrath are necessary important and even beautiful get to know the god who is both lion and lamb both judge and father both kind and severe and perfect in every way this catechism is divided into three parts the first part treats of faith the second of morals the third of the means of grace in the first part our lord appears in his character of teacher in the second in his character of king and in the third in his character of high priest and since this catechism proposes as its primary object to answer the question for what purpose are we here upon earth thereby emphasizing and giving prominence to man s high calling and destiny it is especially suited to the present day when the pursuit of material interests self indulgence and pleasure engrosses the attention of so many this catechism is in fact nothing more nor less than an abstract of our lord s teaching and may be called a guide book for the christian on the road to heaven preface
