persons living with disabilities plwds are imbued with inalienable human rights and have talents and potential that would aid in the nigerian government s unceasing pursuit of economic development however under nigeria s fourth republic since 1999 implementation of disability laws has been lethargic in improving disability laws under nigeria s fourth republic ten measured steps into the future philip c aka and joseph abiodun balogun explore measures for improving the capacity of the nigerian national government to implement regional and global treaties related to disability that are human rights centric they emphasize the need for a human rights focus and for the nigerian government to implement laws that support the potential of plwds including their contributions to socioeconomic development this book offers a valuable guide to one of the most challenging areas of commercial law now frequently referred to as secured transactions with a focus on nigerian canadian and united states perspectives a debtor s ability to provide collateral influences not only the cost of the money borrowed but also in many cases whether secured lenders are willing to offer credit at all the book proposes that increasing access to and indeed lowering the cost of credit could tremendously boost economic development while at the same time arguing that this would best be achieved if the legal framework for secured transactions in nigeria and of course any other country with similar experiences were designed to allow the use of personal property and fixtures to secure credit similarly the creation priority perfection and enforcement of security interests in personal property should be simplified and supported by a framework that ensures that neither the interests of secured lenders nor debtors are hampered so as to guarantee the continuous availability of affordable credit as well as debtors willingness to borrow and do business the book further argues that in addition to the obvious preference for real property over personal property by secured lenders due to the unreformed secured transactions legal framework in nigeria its compartmentalized nature has also resulted in unpredictability in commerce and the concomitant effects of poor access to credit through the comparative research conducted in this book utilizing the ucc article 9 and ontario ppsa as benchmarks the author provides reformers with a repository of tested secured transactions law solutions which law reformers in the commonwealth countries in africa and beyond as well as the business community will find valuable in dealing with issues that stem from secured transactions derived from the renowned multi volume international encyclopaedia of laws this concise exposition and analysis of the essential elements of law with regard to family relations marital property and succession to estates in nigerian covers the legal rules and customs pertaining to the intertwined civic status of persons the family and property after an informative general introduction the book proceeds to an in depth discussion of the sources and instruments of family and succession law the authorities that adjudicate and administer the laws and issues surrounding the person as a legal entity and the legal disposition of property among family members such matters as nationality domicile and residence marriage divorce and cohabitation adoption and guardianship succession and inter vivos arrangements and the acquisition and administration of estates are all treated to a degree of depth that will prove useful in nearly any situation likely to arise in legal practice the book is primarily designed to assist lawyers who find themselves having to apply rules of international private law or otherwise handling cases connected with nigeria it will also be of great value to students and practitioners as a quick guide and easy to use practical resource in the field and especially to academicians and researchers engaged in comparative studies by providing the necessary basic material of family and succession law a survey of sharia criminal law commissioned by the european commission and to provide analysis of the re islamification of the northern nigerian states based on classical islamic texts the study clarifies and explains the circumstances and background to these new codes paying special attention to the koraic offences of fornication theft robbery and alcohol consumption it further identifies conflicts between these codes and the human rights principles guaranteed in the nigerian federal constitution and in the united nations conventions on human rights to which nigeria is a signatory and surmises the views of the local people about the laws the author is professor of islamic law at the university of amsterdam drawing on data from a cross section of postcolonial nations across the world and on a detailed case study of nigeria this book examines the experience of recreating law and justice in postcolonial societies the author s definition of postcolonial societies includes countries that have emerged from external colonial rule such as nigeria and india as well as societies that have overcome internal dominations such as afghanistan and iraq suggesting that restructuring a system of law and justice must involve a consideration of the traditions customs and native laws of a society as well as the official often foreign rules this volume examines how ethnically complex nations resolve disputes whether criminal or civil through a combination of formal and informal social control systems this book is unique in its concern with how the average citizens of a postcolonial society can play more active parts in their nation s law and justice and how modern and increasingly urban societies can learn from indigenous peoples and institutions which are more informal in their approaches to problem solving the concluding chapter looks at the possibility of an increased role for civil as opposed to criminal response in the social control system of a postcolonial society this book addresses core issues of personal property law in nigeria from a comparative perspective it offers a detailed account of the laws governing personal property and the different lightweight reforms undertaken mainly through case law before the enactment of the secured transactions in movable assets act in 2017 the book draws insights from the united states ucc article 9 being unarguably the first law that introduced the secured transactions law and was influential to many common and civilian law systems in reforming their personal property laws given that personal property law is fairly new in Nigeria and also in Africa in general the main aim of the book is to provide judges and academic researchers with a rich collection of tested solutions from jurisdictions that have experimented with modern secured transactions law for several decades the primary and secondary works that were referenced in the book have tracked the different epochal shifts in legal thinking and their significances this may assist scholars and judges in Nigeria to come up with bespoke interpretations of the act and solutions to underlying problems on credit and security that will satisfy the local conditions as opposed to copying the unaltered solutions from the United States and other advanced systems
