workers actors and seamstresses anxious litigants ask the gods to silence their opponents men inquire about the paternity of their children women beg the gods to help them keep their men business rivals try to corner the market slaves plead to escape their masters this material takes us beyond the headlines of ancient history offering new insights into institutions activities and relationships above all individually and together these texts help us to understand some of the ways in which ancient greek men and women understood the world in turn the beliefs and activities of an ancient culture may shed light on modern attitudes to risk
