the twelve classic comedy films examined within these pages are distinguished by an equal number of defining comic performances ranging from the great dictator 1940 to a southern yankee 1948 each film focuses on the most central theme of clown comedy resilience the encouragement or hope that one can survive the most daunting of life's dilemmas even during the war-torn 1940s and each film can be regarded as a microcosm of the antiheroic world of its central clown or clowns among the performers represented are Charlie Chaplin, W.C. Fields, Abbott and Costello, Jack Benny, Eddie Bracken, Bob Hope, Bing Crosby, Danny Kaye, the Marx Brothers, Harold Lloyd, and Red Skelton. Filling a notable gap in scholarship on 2 Peter and Jude, Peter Davids artfully unpacks these two neglected but fascinating epistles that deal with the confrontation between the Greco-Roman world and the burgeoning first-century Jesus communities. Davids firmly grasps the overall structure of these oft-maligned epistles and presents a strong case for 2 Peter and Jude as coherent, consistent documents marked by exceptional exegesis and sharp independent judgments. Davids's work both connects with the latest scholarship and transforms scholarly insights into helpful conclusions benefiting Christian believers.

The hilarious yet chilling account of the recent zombie invasion of the United States and Mexico: unable to guard itself, the U.S. watches helplessly as its citizens are eaten, power plants, oil refineries, and water supplies destroyed. In a moment of sobriety, the president of the U.S. pleads with Laserman for his help. Fortunately, Laserman accepts the challenge and proposes a devious yet ingenious plan to save Planet Earth. In the zombie world, terrifying deserted cities where captured zombies prowl, darkened buildings and lurk in wretched alleyways as heavily armed humans stalk them. The spectacular hunts are a rage and telecast live across the U.S. Then something goes terribly wrong.
