many of the earliest books particularly those dating back to the 1900s and before are now extremely scarce and increasingly expensive we are republishing these classic works in affordable high quality modern editions using the original text and artwork this book makes four bold claims 1 life is an ultimate datum open to philosophical analysis and irreducible to physical reality hence all materialist reductionist explanations most current theories of life are false 2 all life presupposes soul entelechy without which a being would at best fake life 3 the concept of life is analogous and the most direct access to life in its irreducibility is gained through consciousness 4 all life possesses an objective and intrinsic value that needs to be respected human life possesses beyond this an inviolable dignity life and personal life are pure perfections it being absolutely better to possess personal life than not to possess it chapter 1 the metaphysical essence and the many meanings of life as well as its transcendental character chapter 2 the irreducibility of biological life its amazing empirical and philosophically intelligible essential features and the ways of knowing them chapter 3 the immediate evidence and indubitable givenness of mental conscious life as well as questions of brain death and immortality chapter 4 the inviolable objective dignity of personal life and its self transcendence a new theory of the fourfold source of human dignity and rights chapter 5 in dialogue form methods and results of philosophy versus those of empirical life sciences many in continental philosophy of religion aver that we are in a new moment one where the intellectually marginalized and religiously bastardized traditions of mystical intuitive and esoteric apprehensions must be re articulated and appreciated anew in an era marked by catastrophic events and atrophied cultural institutions what seems to be needed is an affirmation of the human potential to truck with non human or even inhuman forces and intentions at scales of speed slowness or intensity that break with consensual conceptions of human limitations the essays in this volume outline patterns of mind and mortality existence and ecstasy creativity and expression political possibility and religious matrix from a position that takes quite seriously possible relations with the absolute however enigmatic that modernity has denied and postmodernity has obscured in the name of academic skepticism and humanist reservations beyond post modernist pastiche and post secular nostalgia these essays explore the potencies of archaic spiritual disciplines as well as the passions driving the mystical heretical and gnostic intimations riddling contemporary relations with the absolute what is the meaning of life it is a question that has intrigued the great philosophers and has been hilariously lampooned by Monty Python indeed the whole idea strikes many of us as vaguely pompous a little absurd is there one profound and mysterious meaning to life a single ultimate purpose behind human existence in what is it all about Julian Baggini says no there is no single meaning instead Baggini argues meaning can be found in a variety of ways in this life he succinctly breaks down six answers people commonly suggest when considering what life is all about helping others serving humanity being happy becoming successful enjoying each day as if it were your last and freeing your mind by reducing the vague mysterious question of meaning to a series of more specific if thoroughly unmysterious questions about what gives life purpose and value he shows that the quest for meaning can be personal empowering and uplifting if the meaning of life is not a mystery if leading meaningful lives is within the power of us all then we can look around us and see the many ways in which life can have purpose we can see the value of happiness while accepting it is not everything we can see the value of success without interpreting that too narrowly we can see the value of seizing the day as well as helping others lead meaningful lives we can recognize the value of love as perhaps the most powerful motivator of all illustrating his argument with the thoughts of many of the great philosophers and examples drawn from everyday life baggini convincingly shows that the search for meaning is personal and within the power of each of us to find micHEL foucault continues to be hugely influential his diagnoses challenge us to rethink crucial phenomena such as madness discipline the human sciences the state neoliberalism sexuality and subject formation based on his work in its entirety and with special emphasis on his many recently published lecture series this book provides an updated comprehensive and original account of his thought by reading foucault as a philosopher it offers an extensive systematic assessment and discussion of his unique conception of philosophical practice and brings a unifying trajectory in his work to light
